HIS LOVE WANED

AND NOW MISS GRACE FULK WANT $5,000 DAMAGES.

BACK FROM HONEYMOON

Burlington Junction Agent Starts Married Life With a Lawsuit—Many Other Suits Are Filed.

A breach of promise suit for $5,000 was filed Saturday by Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison for Miss Grace Fulk of Parnell against John E. Courter, who is station agent at Burlington Junction.

According to the petition the defendant proposed to the plaintiff in November, 1912, and she promised to marry him. The plaintiff, s the petition states, requested the defendant several times to perform his promise, but on December 12, 1912 the plaintiff married another woman. Mr. and Mrs. Courter just returned about a week ago to Burlington Junction from their honeymoon trip.

A suit filed Saturday was by Ira K. Alderman for Noyes, Norman & Co. against T. W. Costello of Conception Junction. It is for two notes, both for $250.

A suit to set aside a deed was filed by Attorneys F. P. Robinson and W. E. Wiles for Thomas Combs vs. James P. Combs, Mary Combs, et al. The petition asks that a deed be set aside and that the legal title to some land be diverted to the plaintiff. The second count in the suit asked for a partition between James and Thomas Combs in some land.

Ray Pope brought suit against O. D. Walker and Walter Ham for $95. The petition alleges that the defendants purchased a hay press, valued at $150, and that $85 was paid on the press, leaving $95, which is still due and unpaid, according to the petition. Cook, Cummins & Dawson are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

D. C. Pierpoint of this city brought suit against Leonard D. Lynch. According to the petition the defendant is owing $350 for rent of the plaintiff's farm, which is due and unpaid. The second count in the petition is for $250, and the petition claims that the defendant failed to comply with said contract and depreciated the value of the farm. Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

A suit was filed Saturday by Attorney W. E. Wiles for Frances Moon vs. Francis Workman, Wm. Workman, George W. Workman, Joseph T. Workman, John Workman et al., whereby the plaintiff wants a deed set aside.

According to the petition the plaintiff is a daughter of David Workman, who was married in 1869. Mr. Workman and his wife separated in 1886, and in 1889 a divorce was secured at the Nodaway county circuit court. The plaintiff claims that she is the sole and only heir at law of David Workman.

November 8, 1887, the petition states, David Workman pretended to make and deliver a deed to John Workman, Sr., his father, to 75 acres of land for the consideration of $700. The petition says that David Workman was an imbecile and incapable of managing his affairs, and was disordered in his mind at that time, and that said land was reasonably worth $40 an acre or more than $3,000 for the 75-acre tract. Then on April 24, 1894, John Workman, Sr., a single man, executed and delivered a certain warranty deed to the same land to David Workman, and pretended to convey the same land back to David Workman.

David Workman died on July 8, 1912, and John Workman, Sr., on March 14, 1902.

The plaintiff wants the deeds set aside and says that they are void and illegal and that fraud and deception were used on David Workman by John Workman, Sr., and that David Workman was an imbecile.

A suit filed Friday afternoon by Cook, Cummins & Dawson for Frank Melick of Hopkins against C. E. Hays, is for a commission fee of $227 for selling Hays' land, so the petition alleges.

The Wyeth Auto and Supply company of St. Joseph has just filed a suit against Dr. H. S. Dowell of Clearmont for two sums, one of $1,250 for an auto and one of $91.15 for repairs. The first suit is on a note made May 31, 1912.

Another divorce suit filed Friday was that of Phillip T. Hudson against Lena Hudson. The petition states that they were married January 20, 1912, in St. Joseph.

Among other things in the petition, it is alleged that the defendant had been married once before and has a son 16 years old, and that she is too much in the society of other men; that she got various sums of money off him by promises, and that she refused to go to Nebraska to make her home with him as per the pre-nuptial agreement, to say nothing of her having gone out to late the night after they were married and staying out until 3 o'clock the next morning.

PROGRESS BY EXPERIMENTS.

The World's Advance Caused by the Man Who Tries Things, Says Mr. Jordan.

S. M. Jordan, manager of the bureau of agriculture of Pettis county, Missouri, in a talk to the farmers in the auditorium of the agricultural building at Columbia on Thursday, spoke of the difficulties encountered last spring in getting the new county farm adviser work started. He said that he had been doing institute work in the state for the state board of agriculture for the past five years, and although he had talked to large crowds and answered many questions, yet he was not satisfied with the results. He was not able to get close enough to the farmers and help them solve their problems.

He told of a farmer who came to him to find out what was the matter with his wheat. From the description the farmer gave it seemed clear that the Hessian fly was causing the trouble, but when Mr. Jordan drove out to the wheat field with the farmer they found that the little leaf hopper was doing the damage and not the Hessian fly.

One of the greatest things the county man can do is to get the people together and they will solve their own problems," Mr. Jordan said. "He can not answer the thousand and one questions which will be put to him from time to time, but he can tell them how to get such information or he can get it for them.

"About the first thing that I was called upon to do was to make a speech at a public sale. I gladly accepted, because it was an opportunity to reach some men who will not go out to hear a talk on agriculture. One of these men came to me and said that he owned 800 acres of land and that it was getting better every year and that he thought he knew how to farm. He said that he had some neighbors who farmed very badly, and that unless their methods were improved they would have to sell their farms for the mortgages. 'To help these fellows out I am willing and glad to pay my part of your salary,' he said. Now that is the kind of spirit we need in every community.

"We break into the print every once in a while down there in Pettis county, and get our names in the paper. The press is the best instrument we have. It has done as much or more than any other one thing to make the work a success. Such publicity has brought buyers to our county and many inquiries are coming in every day, and they all want to know about the county farm adviser work. I try to have something in the paper for the farmer to read every Sunday morning.

"The apple crop in Pettis county last year was, perhaps, the largest that the county ever raised, yet only about one-fifth of the crop was marketed. The other four-fifths were cider apples and the market could not use them. If we would be successful we must take better care of our orchards. More cultivation, pruning and systematic spraying are needed.

"If it were not for the man who is willing to try a new thing we would still be plowing with a crooked stick. People are not as skeptical as they used to be, they are getting out of the old ruts. Thanks are due to the newspapers, for they have been the greatest factor in bringing this enlightenment." University Missourian.

BASKET BALL TONIGHT.

Finish Fight Expected Between Normals and Platt's Commercial School.

The basket ball game tonight between the Platt's Commercial college team of St. Joseph and the Northwest Normal five will take place at the Normal gymnasium, beginning at 8:15. The teams will line up as follows:

Referee, Clausen, St. Joseph.

IN TWO SECTIONS

SHORT COURSE CLASS SO LARGE IT MUST BE DIVIDED.

LANTERN IN AGRONOMY

Pictures Used in Teaching in Dairy and Poultry Departments—Judging Rooms to Be Heated.

The number that are expecting to attend the branch short course in Maryville February 10 to 15 will be so large that it is probable that it will be divided into two sections. So writes H. C. Allison, professor of animal husbandry of the state college of agriculture at Columbia.

Prof. Allison states that a judging room for live stock should be arranged for so it can be heated in case the weather is cold, and the building is to be well lighted and sufficiently large so a class of 150 can conveniently be located there. For the live stock judging, Prof. Allison wants the best available animals in the county. Four head are needed for each day, and it is desired to have them of about the same age, breed and sex, if possible, preferably owned by the same man. Beef cattle, dairy cattle, draft horses, hogs and sheep will be used and cattle should be to halter and gentle, and beef animals should be in good condition. The hogs will be pure-bred.

Prof. Douglass of the agronomy department of the state agricultural college will have charge of the dairy and poultry departments and will give special lectures. Lantern slides will be used.

The program for the course will be announced within a few days.

CALVE HEARD HER SING.

Voice Pupil of Mrs. J. W. McMillan Had Audience of the Great Singer in St. Joseph Last Week.

Emma Calve, the great opera singer who appeared in St. Joseph last week, gave audience to a voice pupil of Mrs. J. W. McMillan of that city, who has a large vocal class in Maryville. Mrs. McMillan returned to her home in St. Joseph Saturday morning from her two days' work with her class in this city.

The name of Mrs. McMillan's pupil who sang for Calve is Miss Helen Schoenhefer, 2423 Mary street. Miss Schoenhefer was encouraged and delighted beyond measure with the words of her famous critic, who complimented her enunciation, smooth range, her singing method, her scales and songs, and advised her to continue her studies, for she considered her voice of unusual quality and worth all the training that could be given to it.

Miss Schoenhefer's voice is flute-like in quality, but as she is quite small in stature and physique, will not be able to take a prominent place in the world of great singers, Calve said, if she will persist in study and practice.

WORKING ON WHITE WAY.

Proposition for Lighting System Meeting With Favor From the Property Owners.

Work was started this week by a committee to see the property owners in the business section of the city to have them paid for installing the white way lighting system, the city agreeing to pay for the juice to run the lights The committee is meeting with much encouragement.

According to the resolution adopted by the council the lighting of the city in the residence districts hinges on the white way system, and the white way system hinges on the residence lights.

Guests From Texas.

Mrs. H. A. Chamness and little daughter of Gainesville, Texas, spent Thursday and Friday in Maryville at the home of Mrs. Chamness' uncle, Mr. Lewis C. Miller. They went to Bolckow Friday evening for a short visit with relatives, where Mr. Chamness will meet them and leave Sunday evening for their home.

Manley Not so Well.

The condition of Frank Manley, who is at St. Francis hospital, is not so good today, according to his physicians. Manley fell from the postoffice building last Saturday and fractured his skull. The physicians removed the packing around the fractured skull and a blood clot has formed on his brain.

Mrs. S. A. Prickett went to St. Joseph Saturday morning to visit Mrs. Susan Dillon.

RANK STILL FIRST

NODAWAY COUNTY LEADS HOG RAISING COUNTIES.

AND FIFTH IN APPLES

More Than a Million and a Half Pounds of Poultry Shipped Out—Fine Educational Center.

According to the Missouri Red Book, just issued recently, Nodaway county leads all of the counties in hogs, is third in cattle, and if fifth in sending out apples in the state. Apples amounted to 52,091 barrels.

In the book will be found the following about the county.

The chief rivers and streams are the Hundred-and-Two, Nodaway and Platte rivers, Honey, Long Branch, Elkhorn, Clear, Mill and Rain's creek.

There is no timber of commercial consequence, but abundant along the river and smaller streams for local purposes; rough lumber, posts and fuel.

On the prairie the roads are fairly good, and many miles of dirt roads have been graded and otherwise improved. The good roads sentiment is prevalent, and better work will be the result.

Coal cropping out in the western part of the county, but no mining excepting a little by local parties in very small quantities.

The topography of Nodaway is a high, rolling prairie; a rich, deep, productive soil. Corn, wheat and oats are the leading farm crops, but nearly all the cereals and grasses and forage crops are produced, and some tobacco. Cattle, hogs, horses and mules and sheep make up the bulk of a large live stock production. Farms are well improved, and the farmers are prosperous and contented. Farms range in price from $40 to $150 per acre. Farm labor is had for $25 to $35 per month. In agricultural products Nodaway stands close to the top in a list of the ten greatest producing counties of the state.

Social conditions are good. Good railroad facilities, good public schools, prosperous churches, with Sunday schools, and other educational institutions all go to make Nodaway an ideal agricultural county. Maryville is the county seat; population 4,762. It has considerable manufacturing interests, such as mills, wagon factories, brick and tile, etc. A high school, Maryville seminary and a State Normal make Maryville an educational center. At Conception there is a Catholic college and an abbey, an academy for young women and an orphanage for girls; also a monastery. Priests teach in the college; clerics are preparing for priesthood, and lay brothers cultivate the college farm. There are convenient towns.

In the following table is shown the commodities produced in the county and shipped out by freight and express. No effort has been made to estimate the local consumption, as it would at best be only an estimate, with no assurance of absolute accuracy:

WAS BURIED HERE.

John H. Sweitzer Died Thursday Morning in St. Louis as a Result of Injuries Sustained in a Fall.

John H. Sweitzer died Thursday morning at 4 o'clock in the city hospital in St. Louis, as a result of injuries sustained in a fall on an icy sidewalk in that city on Monday, January 6. His skull was fractured as a result of the fall.

His remains were brought to Maryville Saturday morning and funeral services were held at 8 o'clock this morning at St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Fr. Anselm. Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. The remains were accompanied to this city by Mrs. John Sweitzer and a brother, Conrad Sweitzer of Maryville, and by John Ames of St. Louis.

Mr. Sweitzer was 44 years old and was born and reared in Maryville. He has been in St. Louis for the past ten years. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sweitzer, who reside in this city, and also by his wife, of St. Louis. Two brothers and a sister also survive, who are Conrad and Joseph Sweitzer, and Mrs. Thomas Riffe of this city.

LECTURE NUMBER WAS GOOD.

Beilharz Pleased the Many Who Heard Him—Next Number by Dr. John Gray.

"The best I ever heard" was the expression of appreciation heard from almost everyone who attended Mr. Noah Beilharz's interpretation of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" Friday night at the First Methodist church. Each character in that popular old work, as depicted by the artist, was distinctly different, and yet each was handled in a masterly manner.

Last night's entertainment was the third number of the Normal lecture course. The next number will be on the night of Tuesday, February 25, and will be a lecture by Dr. John Gray.

INTRODUCED A BILL.

Representative Praisewater Offered One to Reimburse Former Sheriff Tilson.

In the house Representative John W. Praisewater of Burlington Junction introduced a number of bills reimbursing former Sheriff W. R. Tilson of Nodaway county for expense incurred by him in apprehending criminals. They carried appropriations as follows: For returning Orville V. Price from Jewell county, Kan., $28.20; for apprehending Charles Smith, who violated his parole in June, 1911, and went to Idaho, $158.56; for going to Fremont county Iowa, for Elmer Dix, $22.98; to Jackson county, Kansas, for Wood Gaulding, $20.45; to Pueblo, Col., for John Dix, $71.47, and to Indiana for J. Burns and Williams, $52.40.

THE BELLOWS OBSEQUIES.

Body of Mrs. Franklin Bellows Will Lie in State at Her Late Home From 1 Until 2 o'Clock Sunday.

The funeral services in memory of Mrs. Franklin Bellows, who passed away Wednesday afternoon, will be held at her late home, on South Fillmore street Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Miriam cemetery.

The body will lie in state from 1 until 2 o'clock p. m.

A brother and sister of the late Mrs. Bellows, Jacob Dilling of St. Joseph, Ill., and Mrs. Ella Shobe of Urbana, Ill., and an old friend of the family, Mrs. Ami Huffman of Nauvoo, Ill., arrived in the city Saturday morning to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Charles O'Connor Died.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fite and Mrs. W. H. Cumpston returned Saturday noon from Kansas City, where they attended the funeral services of Mr. Fite's sister, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, who died Monday afternoon at her home in that city from a complication of diseases, from which she had suffered a long time. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the home. Mrs. O'Connor was Miss Hattie Fite of Maryville and was born here thirty-eight years ago. She is survived by her husband, who also grew to manhood in Maryville.

Left for California.

Mrs. Anna Vance left Saturday morning for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the remainder of the winter with her brother, Will Roberts, and his wife.

On Visit to Brother.

Mrs. Vada Halley went to Amazonia Saturday morning to spend a few days with her brother, Dr. S. S. Bever and family.

NO CENSOR YET

CONFLICTING DATES PREVENTED DR. TAYLOR BRINGING IN UP.

INSURANCE TAX STILL ON

Council Not Disposed to Remove Tax for Doing Business in Maryville—Heller Got His License.

At the city council meeting Friday evening the matter for the censorship of moving picture shows did not come up as had been expected. President H. K. Tyalor of the Normal was at the city hall waiting for the council meeting, but as the board did not meet until 8 o'clock, President Taylor could not stay until then as he had to be at the Normal lecture course number, Noah Beilharz, who gave a lecture at the First M. E. church on that evening.

The matter of censorship of the picture shows here has been agitated for some time by Dr. Taylor and a number of others, but it is thought that the council will not take any action on the matter, even if the agitators should bring it up.

The board granted a saloon license to W. A. Heller, to expire July 26, 1913.

The insurance petition requesting that the occupation tax be taken off of insurance companies doing business in Maryville was laid over again. The council don't seem disposed to take favorable action on this petition.

The street commissioner was ordered to open the alley back of the Bell and Richey properties, in Southwest Maryville.

The council also agreed to stand for one-half of the rent of a house for the fire driver, provided it does not exceed $7.50. The fire driver does not want to live in the city hall, as former fire drivers have done.

DIED IN KANSAS.

Mrs. Levi Long, for Many Years a Resident of Maryville, Died in Liberal, Kan., Friday.

Mrs. Levi Long, whose residence was for many years on the site of the Jefferson ward school building, died Friday of old age at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hood of Liberal, Kan. Mrs. Long had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hood since the death of her husband, quite a number of years ago. He was 91 years old when he died. Mrs. Long was the widow of Dr. Rynerson before she married Mr. Long.

A METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

An Organization Will Be Effected at a Banquet Next Thursday Evening at the First M. E. Church.

It is expected that a membership of 100 will be secured for the Methodist Brotherhood that will be organized at the First M. E. church next Thursday evening, when a meeting for that purpose will be held at the close of the banquet to be given at 6:30 o'clock.

The principal speaker at the banquet will be Mr. G. H. Dentz of the Hoffman Memorial M. E. church of St. Joseph.

Dr. Dodd, who is conducting the Bible study at the First Presbyterian church, and the pastor, Rev. Harkness, will speak during the first part of the banquet.

A fuller notice of the affair will be given early next week.

Hazel Smith and Goldie Roelofson were out of school this week on account of sickness.

A new four-team basket ball schedule has been arranged, excluding members of the first team. There are to be twelve games. The teams are captained by Blagg, Scott, V. Lyle and Murray, and will play every Wednesday and Friday. The first game was played Wednesday between Scott's and Blagg's teams, the former winning 26 to 12. Owing to repair work going on in the gym Friday's games were postponed until Monday.

Rev. Harrell gave a very interesting talk in assembly Tuesday morning. He chose for his subject "Things to Read." He cited several poets and their works as examples, among them being Byron, who, he said, had written many beautiful thoughts, but often to get all these parts one was compelled to wade through parts that were equally of the reverse nature, and could not reap the full harvest of the beautiful. So these works, then, would not be in the list he would advise students to read. He also stated that more books came off the press in the last year than were in existence in the whole world when Columbus discovered America. In closing he left the impression that it is not how many books we read, but what we read, and what we read, read well.

Miss Eleanor Smith was a visitor Friday afternoon.

Last Wednesday the advanced seniors took dinner at Binter's cafe, after which they attended the Empire theater. They had as guests Mr. Leiber Holmes and Prof. Westbrook.

Rev. Duncan Monro of the Calvary Baptist church of Kansas City has been selected to deliver the graduation address Friday night. Rev. Monro has been in this field of work for some time and the members of the class are congratulating themselves on being able to secure his services for this occasion. Rev. Cox will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night at the Christian church.

The last week of study for this term being over, the students are making preparations for the final examination, which will last until next Thursday noon.

The senior girls are rehearsing for a playette which will be given Friday afternoon. The title is "The Heartville Shakespeare Club," and is of the comedy nature.

The high school lost the first of a series of out-of-town games to Blanchard last night by a score of 16 to 8. Those who made the trip were David, Thompson, Wilson, Leech, Staples and Streater.

Sunday Services at Local Churches

First Baptist Church.

Professor Harry Miller of the State Normal will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. There will be no services in the evening excepting the usual B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 o'clock, as the congregation will join in the union service for the high school class sermon at the Christian church at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday school as usual at 9:30 a. m.

Southern Methodist Church.

Sunday school at 9:30. The Wage Earners' Bible class had a live lesson hour last Sunday, and discussed the question of the relation of the white and black races. All wage earners not attending Sunday school elsewhere are cordially invited to join this class.

Preaching at 10:45 by Rev. J. F. Patton of the Skidmore Southern Methodist church. Subject, "The Colossian Heresy." The pastor of the church, Rev. J. D. Randolph is conducting revival meetings at Skidmore.

League at 6:30 p. m.

No evening service on account of the high school commencement sermon.

First M. E. Church.

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., the pastor giving a special lecture on Genesis to the men's Bible class.

Preaching at 10:45 by the pastor, Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, on the subject "The Shepherd's Song." The choir will sing "The Penitent's Prayer," from the cantata "Conversion," by Matthews.

Miss Marie Gayle Jackson, the new voice teacher at the Conservatory will ring a solo at this service.

There will be no preaching service in the evening at this church. The pastor will preach upon the subject "The Greatest Teacher" at the First Christian church, before the midwinter graduating class of the high school, when all the churches of the city will join in the service.

First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Samuel Dodds will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit at tomorrow morning and evening services. The largest audience, so far, of the special service listened to a powerful and graphic description of the raising of Lazarus and the annointing of Jesus. The unique feature of Dr. Dodds' method is that he uses his fine scholarship to drive home the imperative need of consecration to the Master's service. His subject tomorrow morning will be "The Gospel of the Tabernacle," and his evening teaching "The Intercessory Prayer." The evening services will be changed in time to allow those who wish to attend the baccalaureate service plenty of time to traverse the distance between the two churches before the latter service begins.

The Young People's club will meet at 6:15 p. m., and the evening service at 7 o'clock.

There will be no afternoon meeting on Monday, but at 7:30 in the evening Dr. Dodds will speak on "The Lord's supper."

Christian Church.

Regular preaching service at 10:45 by the pastor, Rev. C. J. Miller.

Bible school at 9:30.

Endeavor at 6:30. Leader, Miss Aileen Henderson. Subject, "How Can We Better Our Prayer Meetings?"—Matt. 18:18-20.

Morning subject, "Christian Education."

January 19th is Education Day. It will be observed by all our representative churches.

The evening service will be in honor of the graduates of the high school this term. All the Protestant churches will worship with us. Rev. Cox will deliver the sermon. The program for the evening will be as follows.

Prelude, Dr. Thomas.
Hymn No. 2.
Invocation, Rev. Randolph.

Bride and Groom From Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McClintock of Golden Prairie, Wyo., are visiting near Maryville with Mrs. McClintock's grandmother, Mrs. M. McComas, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Epperson, south of Maryville, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tebow. Mr. and Mrs. McClintock are a Christmas bride and groom, their wedding having occurred at Cheyenne. The bride, who is a niece of Mrs. Epperson and Mrs. Tebow, was Miss Bethel McComas. She was a student at the State Normal during its first year and before the family of her father, W. B. McComas, moved to Wyoming.

Were Surprised.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dinsmore were very pleasantly surprised at their home, near Gaynor City, Tuesday evening by about forty of their neighbors. The evening was spent in social conversation. Light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore are to change their residence soon and this was in the nature of a farewell gathering. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Will Sparks and family Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Will Logan and son, Rev. Hughes, Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hart and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Goff, Mrs. John Brown, Mr. G. C. Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. George Hepburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Husbands, Mr. Carl Timmerman, Mrs. Timmerman, Mrs. L. A. Nigh, Mrs. Delmar New, Miss Lucile Husbands, Miss Ada Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd, Messrs. Gale and Ralph Boyd, Miss Euphamia Heflin.

A Remnant Reception.

Something new was planned at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Southern Methodist church Friday afternoon, which was held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Gray. It will be a "remnant reception" and will be held in the church parlors on Friday evening, January 31, particulars of which will be given later, and an informal program will be given. The ladies also made arrangements for their annual Easter sale and will devote themselves to work for that event from now on to the time for holding it, which will be announced soon. After the business session was over the ladies enjoyed a social hour, when the hostess served a luncheon, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. John Johnson, and Mrs. Raymond Barry. The entire afternoon was very enjoyable, fully thirty members being present, and one new member, Mrs. French Carter, was added. There were two visitors, Mrs. Charles Thorp and Mrs. S. B. Davenport.

The Reds Won the Contest.

The banquet given by the Sunday school of the M. E. church of Burlington Junction at Odd Fellows' hall Thursday night was a most enjoyable affair. The banquet was the result of a contest held by the school, which had been divided into two sections, known as the "Reds" and the "Greens," in winning new students for the school. The losing side, the "Greens," served the banquet, and stood the boasts made by their opponents with most becoming humility. The hall was decorated in red and green. Mr. O. F. Wilson acted as toastmaster. During the serving of the banquet of chicken sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad, cream, cake and coffee, the following toasts were responded to: "Why the Reds Won," Ray Miller; "Why the Greens Lost," Miss Hattie Barker; "The Ideal Sunday School Teacher," Miss Isabel Ely; "How to Keep Up Interest in a Class of Boys" C. B. Zarn; "How the Student Can Help the Teacher," Lee Yaple; "The Relation of Church and Sunday School," by Rev. Sappenfield, the pastor.

Two Birthday Anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietz gave a 12 o'clock dinner Saturday to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of their daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. Dietz's mother, Mrs. William Bredenbeck. The table was centered with a large white log birthday cake, on one side of which was the date 1845, and on the other 1902, in pink letters. Little Miss Margaret was 11 years old on Wednesday, the 15th of January, and Mrs. Bredenbeck was 68 years old Saturday, the 18th. At Margaret's request the celebration was held on her grandmother's birthday. There was only one guest outside of the two families, and that was Mrs. Bredenbeck's old friend, Mrs. George Kraus. They have been friends for over forty-four years, when Mrs. Bredenbeck and her late husband located in Maryville. Mrs. Bredenbeck's grandchildren especially enjoyed the occasion and listened with much pleasure to stories of their own girlhood and young womanhood. All the conversation at table was carried on in German, from the oldest down to 3-year-old William Dietz, who is more familiar with words in that language than he is with English words. The dinner company included Mrs. Bredenbeck, Miss Margaret Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietz, Misses Edna, Esther and Grace Dietz, Edward William Dietz, Peter Dietz, Jr., Miss Amelia Bredenbeck and Mrs. George Kraus.

Sale Dates Fixed for March 4th for Sundry Articles No Longer Required by Politicians.

The following notice of sale was received by The Democrat-Forum recently:

Public sale—Having decided to retire from public life we will offer at public sale at the White House, east front door, Tuesday, March 4th, 1913, the following personal property: One large elephant, smooth mouth, age uncertain, well fed but very thin, owing to strenuous campaign recently passed through, has large scar on right side from being gored by a bull moose; one set golf sticks, slightly worn; one job lot of postmasters, one steam roller, used one season, one keynote speech, used one time; one second-hand reciprocity treaty, one best tariff bill, passed once. There will also be brought over from Oyster Bay the following property: One bull moose, calved in June, 1912, large as to size, imported from Africa; one big stick, slightly worn; two socialist planks, good as new; one Ananias plank, good as new, one Columbus speech, the only one in existance; one set of seven governors, guaranteed to run; other articles needless to mention.

Terms—Twenty-five per cent discount for cash in hand on sums over 30 cents; under that amount will take promissory notes. No property to be moved until purchaser has found out he has been stung. Bull moose sandwiches at noon. W. J. Wilson, auctioneer. Woodrow Bryan, clerk. Taft & Roosevelt, owners.

P. S.—Will trade one Saint Joe Cannon for good party politic.

BOWELS BAD, LIVER TORPID? CASCARETS

If Constipated, Bilious, Headachy, Stomach Sour, Get a 10-Cent Box of Cascarets—Take One Tonight.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

BEUM RELEASED PENDING APPEAL

Dynamite Conspirator Quits Prison Under $30,000 Bond.

LEAVES COMPANIONS AT WORK

Beum Asserts All the Other Convicted Conspirators Are Confident of Final Release and Are Not Discouraged in the Least.

Leavenworth, Jan. 18.—Dressed in the same suit of clothes he wore on Jan. 1, when, with thirty-two other men, he entered the federal prison to serve a three-year term imposed upon him at Indianapolis for his alleged connection with a nation-wide dynamite plot, Charles N. Beum of Minneapolis, stepped forth from the prison—released under $30,000 bond. He was the first of the imprisoned dynamite conspirators to obtain his liberty.

As the prison wagon in which he rode from the grounds passed out Beum looked back and saw some of his former comrades swinging steel girders into place over the east front of the cell house which is being constructed by the men. They were ignorant of the fact that the wagon which passed beneath them contained Beum, but he knew they were up there and expressed regret that he could not see them. He previously had been refused permission to shake hands with his comrades and had but a minute to say a hasty goodby to Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

"I'm going home to my family. I haven't seen them for four months," said Beum. He said all the labor leaders were confident of their final release. "There is not a man in the bunch that is discouraged the least bit," he asserted.

Tveitmoe's Bonds Forwarded.

San Francisco, Jan. 18.—Bonds to the amount of $143,500 for the release of Olaf A. Tveitmoe, convicted at Indianapolis of complicity in the national dynamite conspiracy and now in the federal prison at Leavenworth were forwarded to District Attorney Miller at Chicago. The bonds were approved by Commissioner Krull, after Miller had refused to telegraph to allow the federal district attorney's office here to pass upon the qualifications of the bondsmen. Tveitmoe's wife, Mrs. Ingebork Tveitmoe, scheduled $70,000, the largest bond offered.

ENGINEER PRICE REPORTS

Makes Statement of Irrigation Questions Now Uppermost.

Lincoln, Jan. 18.—State Engineer Price has just completed his biennial report and in the report he goes into the work under his jurisdiction very thoroughly and makes many recommendations to the legislature, among them the following:

Smaller unit farms recommended; 600,000 acres subject to irrigation in North Platte valley and only 230,000 acres actually irrigated in 1912.

Recommends further development of present ditches before building any new ones.

Careless use of water for irrigation has caused a large amount of seepage.

Recommends building of reservoirs.

Irrigation bonds should be approved and registered in state auditor's office and state treasurer should be authorized to purchase the same with school funds the same as municipal bonds.

Wyoming and Colorado are fast using all the water in streams which head in these states and are shutting Nebraska out.

Power developments, three large ones. Many small developments have been made.

MAY OMIT INAUGURAL BALL

Committee Awaiting Further Word From President Elect.

Washington, Jan. 18.—William C. Eustis, chairman of the inaugural committee, held an informal conference with members of the committee over President elect Wilson's letter suggesting that the committee consider the feasibility of omitting the usual inaugural ball. He said the committee would do all possible to meet the wishes of Mr. Wilson. Formal action was deferred until the committee confers with Mr. Wilson.

Representative Rodenberry offered an amendment to the resolution authorizing the use of the pension office, which is worded as follows:

"That the grant of the use of the pension building for the inaugural ball is expressly upon the condition and with the limitation that for the prevention of acts of public indecency the following so called dances are barred and prohibited:

"Grizzly bear varieties, the bunny hug, tenderloin movements, the turkey trot contortions, and all like vulgarisms of the hoochee coochess dance and all similar forms of gymnastic convulsive movements suggestive of the degenerate revelries of the segregated districts."

TAFT IN PHILADELPHIA, SPEAKS THREE TIMES

Expresses Hope Wilson Administration Will Be Prosperous.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—President Taft addressed three largely attended dinners here. He came to this city from Washington as the guest of the Clover club and participated in the ceremonies incident to the installing of three "baby" members. In his address the president referred in a facetious manner to his approaching "political demise," and expressed the hope that the administration of his successor would be a prosperous one. After his speech at the Clover club the president took an elevator and ascended to the roof of the hotel, where he addressed a gathering of physicians at the annual dinner of the Medical club. Later he spoke at the dinner of the Poor Richard club in the same hotel.

LEWIS VISITS WILSON

Says Parcel Post Profits Will Make Penny Postage Possible.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 18.—Representative Lewis of Maryland, author of the house bill from which the present parcels post law originated, urged President elect Wilson to appoint as postmaster general "a competent master of postal and transportation economies."

Mr. Lewis suggested no names, but pointed out in a memorandum submitted to Mr. Wilson that without additional funds or legislation the post-office department within four years could establish rates for the movement of small shipments at one-half the present express rates. By making the rural routes relatively profitable through the use of fast freight he said penny posstage would be feasible.

Baby Strangled to Death by Gocart.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 18.—The seven-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. John Swason of Brule county hanged itself in a go-cart and was found dead by the mother. The mother left the little tot in the go-cart and stepped outside the house to care for some horses. When she returned she found the cart had collapsed and that her little daughter had been strangled to death.

Dishonest Fruit Dealers Scored.

New Orleans, Jan. 18.—After attacking dishonest dealers, the Western Fruit Jobbers' association convention adjourned to meet next year at Kansas City. The officers elected were: Samuel E. Lux of Kansas City, president; E. H. Emery of Ottumwa, first vice president; W. D. Tidwell secretary, and W. M. Roylance of Provo, Utah, treasurer.

Money Hearings to Be Suspended.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Hearings of the house money committee will be suspended next week, according to an announcement by Representative Pujo, chairman of the committee, who assigned as the reason for the suspension the doubt cast upon the power of the committee to inquire into the internal affairs of banking institutions.

To Reduce Tariff on Paper.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Substantial reduction of the tariff all along the line in the wood pulp and print paper schedule and retention of the existing duties on tobacco, cigars and similar articles constitute part of the Democratic tariff revision program to be presented to the coming extra session of congress.

Deportation of Mylius Delayed.

New York, Jan. 18.—Deportation of Edward F. Mylius, the Belgian journalist convicted of libelling King George V. of England, which was set for Jan. 23, was postponed by Judge Holt, who issued a write of habeas corpus, returnable Jan. 24.

POINCARE IS ELECTED

Premier is Elevated to Presidency of France.

PROMINENT IN PUBLIC LIFE.

New Executive Is Considered One of Strongest Men in France—Number of Exciting Incidents in National Assembly During the Balloting.

Versailles, France, Jan. 18.—Raymond Nicolas Landry Poincare, for the last twelve months premier of the French cabinet, was elected president of the republic of France by the national assembly, composed of the members of both chambers of parliament, in succession to President Armand Fallieres, whose seven-year term expires Feb. 18.

The wildest confusion, out of which arose two challenges to duels, marked the casting of the ballots.

Premier Poincare's selection for the presidency of France, although made by parliament, as required by the constitution, is regarded as representing as well the popular will of the nation. The choice took place on the second ballot, on which the premier received fifty-three votes more than an absolute majority of the 859 votes cast. Jules Pams, minister of agriculture, was his nearest competitor, receiving 187 votes less than the new president.

The final ballot stood: Raymond Poincare, 483; Jules Pams, 296; Marie Edouard Valliant, 69.

Promises to Be Impartial.

M. Poincare's first words on receiving the notification of his election were: "I shall try to show myself worthy of the confidence of the national assembly. I shall forget without effort the struggles of yesterday and even the injuries. Be convinced that I shall seek in everything and at all times to be an impartial administrator."

At the same time the result was announced to the deputies and senators who composed the national assembly and the throng of people, including people of fashion and diplomats, who crowded the galleries. The news was greeted with a round of cheers. As the legislators and spectators hurried back to Paris detachments of soldiers were being aligned to salute the president elect and escort him to Paris.

Raymond Poincare, now in his fifty-third year, is of medium height and sturdy build and radiates an impression of force, both physical and intellectual. He is versatile and comes from a family distinguished in science and literature. The president elect himself is a philosopher, a writer and a member of the French academy, with a notable career in French law circles.

CLEMENCY FOR BRANDT

Former Schiff Valet Pardoned by Governor Sulzer.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Governor Sulzer pardoned Folke E. Brandt, former valet of Mortimer L. Schiff, the New York banker, on the ground that Brandt's sentence of thirty years for burglary was excessive.

At the request of Governor Sulzer Attorney General Carmody made a statement, in which he said he favored Brandt's pardon, "not as a matter of mercy, but as a matter of justice."

Mr. Carmody declared that the governor's action wiped out a "blot on the judiciary of the state" and showed "that there is nothing that can defeat the ends of justice."

United States Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota made a speech, in which he characterized Brandt's sentence as judicial tyranny.

The governor explained that Brandt had promised to lead a better life if released from prison, and added that Mr. Schiff had declared he would not oppose Brandt's application for clemency unless it was based on "scandalous and malicious statements."

It was stipulated by Governor Sulzer in pardoning Brandt that he is not to accept a theatrical engagement and must not in the future reflect upon the character of any one.

Senator Nelson volunteered to take Brandt to Minnesota and at the suggestion of the governor, Brandt accepted the offer.

Will Seek New Continent.

Grand Forks, N. D., Jan. 18.—V. Stefansson, discoverer of the "blonde Eskimo" of the north, who has been lecturing at the University of North Dakota, where he formerly was a student, announced that he had been assured of $50,000 as expenses for a trip to locate an undiscovered continent in the north, which scientists believe exists there. The party intends to leave San Francisc or Seattle in May. Dr. R. M. Anderson of Iowa, who was with Stefansson on his last trip, will be second in command.

Offer Skin to Save Girl's Life.

Kansas City, Jan. 18.—One thousand members of the Boy Scouts and scores of other persons here each volunteered to give a square inch of skin to save the life of Roberta Haidnes, ten years old, who was badly burned when her father, mother and little sister perished in a fire that destroyed their home at Arnetta, Okla., last Christmas eve. The girl is in a hospital here.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs.

I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Thedford's."

GOTHAM WAITERS VOTE TO STRIKE

Woman is Power Behind New York Hotel Workers.

New York, Jan. 17.—Night working hotel waiters, numbering about 3,000, voted in ratification of a general strike in Greater New York, as decided upon by their day working fellows. Leaders say the strike will begin within twenty-four hours.

The strike is to be conducted by the International Hotel Workers' union and Industrial Workers of the World, and will involve between 12,000 and 15,000 men.

Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the I. W. W. organizer, is the real leader of the present strike and was the principal speaker at the meeting. She took her audience by surprise by springing a proposal against tip taking, and after considerable uproar and wrangling in four languages the final vote was unanimous against accepting gratuities if a living wage could be obtained from the hotel proprietors.

Strikes in several other big industries, involving 200,000 persons, are in progress here.

Reporters and other writers of the Jewish daily newspapers struck, demanding a minimum wage scale of $25 weekly and an agreement that no reporter shall be forced to write more than three columns a day.

Warren's Friends Force Adjournment.

Cheyenne, Jan. 18.—Senator Warren's followers scored a signal victory in the house of representatives when, catching the Democrats napping, they brought about an adjournment for three days. The Wyoming law requires that the election for senator shall be held on the 28th day of January. If the Democrats do not succeed before that date in ousting the Republican representatives whose seats are contested, they cannot defeat Senator Warren.

Of course, you carry fire insurance. Which is worth the most to your family the building or you? Do it now. G. R. Keef, general agent.

LOUNSBERRY FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Robbing Mail Car Near Kansas City.

INSANITY PLEA IS REJECTED.

Kansas City, Jan. 18.—Wells Lounsberry of Medford, Ore., who last August robbed a mail car on a Union Pacific train between Kansas City and Lawrence, Kan., was found guilty in the federal court.

The verdict was returned on one count. According to the instruction of the court each count calls for a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary.

Lounsberry was sentenced to seven and one-half years in the federal prison at Leavenworth.

The plea of the defense was insanity. The government introduced experts as well as citizens of Medford, Lounsberry's home, to refute that plea.

Lounsberry held up six mail clerks, forcing one to bind the others and blindfold them. After rifling the registered mail sacks and placing his loot in a bag, he stepped off the train at Lawrence, boarded it again a moment later and hid in a Pullman berth, where he was captured by the conductor and detectives as the train entered Topeka.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

Machine in Which They Were Riding Strikes Water Plug at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—Russell F. Davis of Cleveland, assistant secretary to Mrs. Helen Britton, owner of the St. Louis National league baseball club, and William H. Walters of St. Louis, president of a novelty company, were killed in an automobile accident here.

The automobile in which they were riding struck a water plug at Grand and Cottage avenues. The impact turned the car around, threw the two men out and tore the cap off the water plug, flooding the street and inundating Davis's body as it lay near the curb.

Davis died a few minutes after he had been taken out of the water by a policeman. Walters was hurled in the air and was dead when picked up.

WILMOT WILL BE DEPORTED

Scientist Paroled From Illinois Penitentiary Held Undesirable.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—John R. Wilmot, scientist, author, inventor and promoter, who recently was paroled from the Joliet penitentiary after serving five and one-half years of a seven-year sentence on a charge of forgery, is in the county jail here awaiting a formal order from Washington ordering his deportation to England.

Wilmot, who is said to have degrees from English universities, was arraigned before Dr. Percy L. Prentiss, immigration inspector, and his presence in this country was held to be undesirable. His deportation was ordered.

While in the penitentiary Wilmot is said to have laid the foundation for several inventions of monetary value, one being a gas machine and another a smoke consumer.

When he stepped from the penitentiary door he was arrested. The main point against him was said to be his criminal record.

Doesn't Want Name on Tombstone.

Chillicothe, Mo., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Edna Sibert, aged seventy, was granted a divorce from Henry Sibert, aged seventy-five, on a plea of non-support, and a contention that she "did not want his name on her tombstone." Her maiden name, Edna Wiley, was restored. The Siberts had been separated twenty-eight years. Both are of old families prominent in Livingstone county.

Trains Trapped by Mexican Rebels.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 18.—The missing southbound passenger train and two troop trains have been trapped by the rebels burning bridges on the Mexican Central railway below Juarez, it was learned definitely. Among the marooned passengers are many prominent American and Mexican mining and cattle men.

Mother Shot by Jealous Woman.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—As Mrs. Hazel Bowman, twenty-seven years old, lay in bed with her three-day-old infant, she was shot three times in the head. She told the police the shooting was done by a woman rival for the affections of Jacob Bowman, the wounded woman's husband. Mrs. Bowman will recover.

Tom Dolan, Old Time Catcher, is Dead.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—Thomas J. Dolan, catcher for the old St. Louis Browns when that organization, under Chris Von Der Ahe, won the pennant four times, died at his home here. His death was due to a complication of diseases. Dolan was fifty-four years old.

British Bar Excludes Women.

London, Jan. 18.—Women were excluded from practicing law at the British bar by an overwhelming vote of the Bar association. A motion to admit women to membership was favored by some of the younger barristers, but the senior counsel voted in a body against it.

CONCENTRATION IS ADVOCATED

Liberty of Individuals to Get Cash Demanded by Schiff.

WOULD LEAVE CURE TO NATURE

Kuhn-Loeb Banker Says Every Monopoly Will Destroy Itself—Witness Says Banks Do Let Each Other's Clients Alone.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Liberty of individuals to concentrate money and power to the limit of their ability was advocated before the house money trust investigating committee by Joseph H. Schiff of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Mr. Schiff declared individuals should be allowed to exert their utmost efforts to concentrate fortunes and power until the laws of nature caused the attempted monopoly "to fall of its own weight." He opposed, however, concentration through corporations and holding companies. He could not say whether concentration had yet reached the point where it was dangerous.

Mr. Schiff took the view that depositors in banks were protected sufficiently under the present law "if administered by and kept up to the teachings of experience." He thought there was no objection to one bank selling securities to another bank which it owned, as "prudence" would prevent officers of a bank from accepting too much of a doubtful security, and that no further law was necessary.

"Too much law," he said, "can crush the life out of a bank."

"I believe in individual freedom," said Mr. Schiff. "If an individual goes too far the laws of nature would interfere. The first attempt at monopoly was the tower of Babel. That fell of its own weight. Every individual monopoly would do the same when it reaches that point."

"Have you ever thought what would happen while such a monopoly was growing and when it had fallen of its own weight?"

"No, I never thought of that," answered Mr. Schiff.

Says Concentration Is Menace.

That the concentration of money and credit is a potential "menace to the country" was asserted by George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago. Mr. Reynolds said that he knew of the "trend toward concentration of money and credits" and that he thought it a dangerous thing.

"I am opposed to the concentration of any sort of power," he said. "I believe that concentration to the point it has already gone is a menace."

Mr. Reynolds said he was opposed to the principle of interlocking directors in competing concerns and that he had adhered to that principle throughout his banking career.

Mine Crew Imprisoned.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 18.—For six hours 150 coal miners were imprisoned in the North Riverside mine, near here. Soon after the men entered the pit the engine house boilers exploded, stopping all machinery, including the fan which supplies air to the tunnels. By telephone the miners were informed that they were locked in and that they were in no danger. Huddled together, they waited anxiously until the boilers were repaired and they were released.

Southmayd Found Guilty of Murder.

Sturgis, S. D., Jan. 17.—The jury in the Southmayd murder case brought in a verdict of guilty of murder as charged in the indictment and fixing punishment at life imprisonment at hard labor. The prisoner was sentenced by Judge Rice and was taken to the Sioux Falls penitentiary.

HOME RULE BILL GOES TO LORDS

Passes Last Reading in House of Commons.

IRISHMEN APPLAUD MEASURE.

Thousand of Orangemen and Members of Unionist Clubs at Belfast Parade Streets in Protest and Burn Copy of Bill.

London, Jan. 17.—After a long, stern battle the home rule bill passed the house of commons by a majority of 110. Later it was read for the first time in the house of lords.

There were two divisions in the lower house. Mr. Balfour's motion for its rejection was defeated, 368 to 268, while the third reading was carried by a vote of 367 to 257, one member of each side having left the house in the interval.

Although the result of the division was a foregone conclusion, Irishmen inside and outside of the house did their best, and, assisted by the Liberals and Laborites, gave the measure for which they had waited and worked so long a good send-off on its way to the house of lords, where its fate is certainly sealed.

The division was preceded by another series of brilliant speeches by the political leaders, among whom were Frederick E. Smith and the solicitor, Sir John A. Simon, two of the cleverest among the younger members, and the veterans, John E. Redmond, Timothy Healy and Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland.

Crowds in Street Cheer.

The house of commons soon quited after the Irish demonstration, but outside the crowd continued to cheer for some time. A strong force of police prevented any attempt at an organized demonstration, fearing a clash between the opposing factions. The Nationalist songs and cheers brought forth counter cries from the persons who had gathered largely out of curiosity.

In a characteristic speech during the course of the debate, Mr. Redmond dwelt feelingly on the years of discouragement through which Irishmen had passed in their efforts to secure home rule, and now their day of victory had arrived.

"We know that the house of lords is going to throw the home rule bill out," he said, "but I believe the home rule bill in spite of the house of lords is going to pass into law within the life-time of this parliament."

Demonstration at Belfast.

Belfast, Jan. 17.—Thousands of Orangemen and members of the Unionist clubs held demonstrations outside the city hall and burned a copy of the home rule bill. Bands paraded the streets. There was much firing of revolvers, mostly blank cartridges, but one man was shot in the back and is in a critical condition.

SALLY'S LOSS, LONDON'S GAIN

How Maid Servant Lost Husband and Wealth and City Became Possessed of Fine Hospital.

That bequests to individuals and to public benevolences are frequently the result of a mere whim or of caprice, has no better illustration, perhaps, than the case of Thomas Guy, who built and endowed the great Guy's hospital of London, at a cost of £238,292 nearly two hundred years ago. Guy had a maid servant of strictly frugal habits, who made his wishes her careful study. He resolved to make her his wife. The necessary preparations were made for the wedding; and among others many little repairs were ordered by Mr. Guy in and about his house. The latter included the laying of a new pavement opposite the street door. It so happened that Sally, the bride-elect, observed a piece of pavement beyond her master's house that required mending, and of her own accord she gave orders to the workmen to do this. This was done in the absence of Mr. Guy, who on seeing more work done than he had ordered was informed that the additional work had been done by the mistress's orders. Thereupon Guy told Sally she had forgotten her position, and added: "If you take upon yourself to order matters contrary to my instructions before we are married, what will you not do after? I renounce my matrimonial intentions toward you." So Sally lost a rich and grouchy husband and London gained a noble institution for her poor.

Funeral at Guilford.

The funeral services for Mrs. Eliza J. Lewis, who died Thursday morning at the home of her son, Walter Clemmons of Clearmont, were held Friday afternoon at the M. E. church, South, of Guilford, by Rev. A. R. Hunt, pastor of the Christian church of Savannah. Burial took place in the Weatherman cemetery.

Miss Helen Hardenbrook of Bedford, Ia., arrived in Maryville Saturday morning on a visit to Miss Lydia Wilbur of South Market street and the families of Eugene Ogden, O. A. Spickerman and Frank Goodspeed.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE-STUDY-ON

ADAMS SIN PUNISHED

THE DEATH-CURSE.

Genesis 3—Jan. 19.

"Every one that committeth sin is the bond-servant of sin."—John 8:34.

ADAM'S first sin brought the penalty specified in this lesson. The Bible proposition is that God, having made Adam perfect, required perfect obedience as the condition of everlasting life. One act of disobedience broke the covenant between God and Adam. (Hosea 6:7, Margin.) Immediately he dropped from favor, under the sentence, "Dying, thou shalt die." Nothing that Adam or his children could do subsequently could recover covenant relationship with God. The death penalty was the limit.

By the law of heredity, Adam transmitted to his race a share of what he possessed, good and bad. As Adam could not increase his penalty, neither can his children. But as Adam could by obedience to the Divine Law, prolong the process of his dying, so may his children. But the impairment wrought by sin has so progressed that many of Adam's children die in infancy; and few maintain the struggle for existence for a hundred years.

Death the Curse—Not Torture.

Our forefathers during the Dark Ages misunderstood the Heavenly Father's character and Plan. Misunderstanding the Bible to teach that God arranged for the eternal torture of all except the Church, they sought to copy their misconception of Jehovah by torturing their fellow-creatures. Because God's people have been gradually getting back to the teaching of His Word, the horrible practises of the past are no longer approved.

The serpent spoke by signs.

But many have much yet to learn respecting the true teaching of the Bible.

The curse which God pronounced against our race is not eternal torment at the hands of devils; but as the Apostle says, "The wages of sin is death." The remedy is a resurrection, secured through the Redeemer's death at Calvary. "The gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." All experience the death penalty. All will have opportunity sometime of regaining everlasting life through Messiah's redemptive work and His Kingdom.

For a Little Flock, who in this Age have obeyed the Master's Voice, God has provided glorious things, far superior to anything that Adam lost. To those who walk in Jesus' footsteps, God promises a share with the Master in His glorious Kingdom.

The Lesson of This Study.

If our Christian forefathers could properly have appreciated today's lesson, they would have known what the Bible teaches respecting the "wages of sin," and have seen how seriously public thought had drifted away from the Divine testimony, to "doctrines of demons." How distinctly God forewarned our first parents that eating the forbidden fruit would bring upon them the death penalty! After they had disobeyed, God drove them out of Eden that the penalty pronounced against them might be accomplished. Had they continued in Eden, eating of its life-sustaining fruits, they would have lived indefinitely.

Why Evil Was Permitted.

God foreknew the fall of man, before the foundation of the world, and provided the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world. God had a glorious purpose interwoven with His permission of sin, which the majority but faintly discerned until lately. Jesus intimated that shortly before the establishment of His Kingdom His Church will understand features of the Divine Plan previously kept secret—they will have an appreciation of God's purposes, and His reasons for having permitted sin and death for six thousand years.

The Temptation of Eve.

How Lucifer and holy angels became disloyal to God we will inquire into later. In this lesson Lucifer, or Satan, is shown as seeking to alienate our first parents from the Creator, that he might enslave them as servants. A spirit being, he would be unseen to Eve. It suited his purposes to possess a serpent, through which to tempt Eve. The serpent doubtless spoke by signs; as we sometimes say, "Actions speak louder than words."

Driven out of Eden.

The serpent ate of the forbidden fruit in the sight of the woman and then manifested its wisdom. The woman perceived. She craved knowledge. Could it be that God wished to keep them in ignorance, and for that reason had forbidden their eating of the fruit? Such disloyal thoughts should have been promptly spurned. But the insidious poison worked. She was not deceived as respects the wrongdoing, but regarding the result. Seeing that the serpent was not poisoned by the fruit, she did not realize that the poison to her was that of disobedience, bringing the death sentence. Adam's eating of the fruit was with full knowledge of the result. In love with his wife, he ate knowingly, preferring to die with her rather than to live without her.

HIS LOVE WANED

AND NOW MISS GRACE FULK WANT $5,000 DAMAGES.

BACK FROM HONEYMOON

Burlington Junction Agent Starts Married Life With a Lawsuit—Many Other Suits Are Filed.

A breach of promise suit for $5,000 was filed Saturday by Shinabargar Blagg & Ellison for Miss Grace Fulk of Parnell against John E. Courter, who is station agent at Burlington Junction.

According to the petition the defendant proposed to the plaintiff in November, 1912, and she promised to marry him. The plaintiff, as the petition states, requested the defendant several times to perform his promise, but on December 12, 1912 the plaintiff married another woman. Mr. and Mrs. Courter just returned about a week ago to Burlington Junction from their honeymoon trip.

A suit filed Saturday was by Ira K. Alderman for Noyes, Norman & Co. against T. W. Costello of Conception Junction. It is for two notes, both for $250.

A suit to set aside a deed was filed by Attorneys F. P. Robinson and W. E. Wiles for Thomas Combs vs. James P. Combs, Mary Combs, et al. The petition asks that a deed be set aside and that the legal title to some land be diverted to the plaintiff. The second count in the suit asked for a partition between James and Thomas Combs in some land.

Ray Pope brought suit against O. D. Walker and Walter Ham for $95. The petition alleges that the defendants purchased a hay press, valued at $150, and that $85 was paid on the press, leaving $95, which is still due and unpaid, according to the petition. Cook, Cummins & Dawson are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

D. C. Pierpoint of this city brought suit against Leonard D. Lynch. According to the petition the defendant is owing $350 for rent of the plaintiff's farm, which is due and unpaid. The second count in the petition is for $250, and the petition claims that the defendant failed to comply with said contract and depreciated the value of the farm. Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

A suit was filed Saturday by Attorney W. E. Wiles for Frances Moon vs. Francis Workman, Wm. Workman, George W. Workman, Joseph T. Workman, John Workman et al., whereby the plaintiff wants a deed set aside.

According to the petition the plaintiff is a daughter of David Workman, who was married in 1869. Mr. Workman and his wife separated in 1886, and in 1889 a divorce was secured at the Nodaway county circuit court. The plaintiff claims that she is the sole and only heir at law of David Workman.

November 8, 1887, the petition states, David Workman pretended to make and deliver a deed to John Workman, Sr., his father, to 75 acres of land for the consideration of $700. The petition says that David Workman was an imbecile and incapable of managing his affairs, and was disordered in his mind at that time, and that said land was reasonably worth $40 an acre or more than $3,000 for the 75-acre tract. Then on April 24, 1894, John Workman, Sr., a single man, executed and delivered a certain warranty deed to the same land to David Workman, and pretended to convey the same land back to David Workman.

David Workman died on July 8, 1912, and John Workman, Sr., on March 14, 1902.

The plaintiff wants the deeds set aside and says that they are void and illegal and that fraud and deception were used on David Workman by John Workman, Sr., and that David Workman was an imbecile.

A suit filed Friday afternoon by Cook, Cummins & Dawson for Frank Melick of Hopkins against C. E. Hays, is for a commission fee of $227 for selling Hays' land, so the petition alleges.

The Wyeth Auto and Supply company of St. Joseph has just filed a suit against Dr. H. S. Dowell of Clearmont for two sums, one of $1,250 for an auto and one of $91.15 for repairs. The first suit is on a note made May 21, 1912.

Another divorce suit filed Friday was that of Phillip T. Hudson against Lena Hudson. The petition states that they were married January 20, 1912, in St. Joseph.

Among other things in the petition, it is alleged that the defendant had been married once before and has a son 16 years old, and that she is too much in the society of other men; that she got various sums of money off him by promises, and that she refused to go to Nebraska to make her home with him as per the pre-nuptial agreement, to say nothing of her having gone out to leave the night after they were married and staying out until 3 o'clock the next morning.

PROGRESS BY EXPERIMENTS.

The World's Advance Caused by the Man Who Tries Things, Says Mr. Jordan.

S. M. Jordan, manager of the bureau of agriculture of Pettis county, Missouri, in a talk to the farmers in the auditorium of the agricultural building at Columbia on Thursday, spoke of the difficulties encountered last spring in getting the new county farm adviser work started. He said that he had been doing institute work in the state for the state board of agriculture for the past five years, and although he had talked to large crowds and answered many questions, yet he was not satisfied with the results. He was not able to get close enough to the farmers and help them solve their problems.

He told of a farmer who came to him to find out what was the matter with his wheat. From the description the farmer gave it seemed clear that the Hessian fly was causing the trouble, but when Mr. Jordan drove out to the wheat field with the farmer they found that the little leaf hopper was doing the damage and not the Hessian fly.

One of the greatest things the county man can do is to get the people together and they will solve their own problems," Mr. Jordan said. "He can not answer the thousand and one questions which will be put to him from time to time, but he can tell them how to get such information or he can get it for them.

"About the first thing that I was called upon to do was to make a speech at a public sale. I gladly accepted, because it was an opportunity to reach some men who will not go out to hear a talk on agriculture. One of these men came to me and said that he owned 800 acres of land and that it was getting better every year and that he thought he knew how to farm. He said that he had some neighbors who farmed very badly, and that unless their methods were improved they would have to sell their farms for the mortgages. 'To help these fellows out I am willing and glad to pay my part of your salary,' he said. Now that is the kind of spirit we need in every community.

"We break into the print every once in a while down there in Pettis county, and get our names in the paper. The press is the best instrument we have. It has done as much or more than any other one thing to make the work a success. Such publicity has brought buyers to our county and many inquiries are coming in every day, and they all want to know about the county farm adviser work. I try to have something in the paper for the farmer to read every Sunday morning.

"The apple crop in Pettis county last year was, perhaps, the largest that the county ever raised, yet only about one-fifth of the crop was marketed. The other four-fifths were cider apples and the market could not use them. If we would be successful we must take better care of our orchards. More cultivation, pruning and systematic spraying are needed.

"If it were not for the man who is willing to try a new thing we would still be plowing with a crooked stick. People are not as skeptical as they used to be, they are getting out of the old ruts. Thanks are due to the newspapers, for they have been the greatest factor in bringing this enlightenment." University Missourian.

IN TWO SECTIONS

SHORT COURSE CLASS SO LARGE IT MUST BE DIVIDED.

LANTERN IN AGRONOMY

Pictures Used in Teaching in Dairy and Poultry Departments—Judging Rooms to Be Heated.

The number that are expecting to attend the branch short course in Maryville February 10 to 15 will be so large that it is probable that it will be divided into two sections. So writes H. C. Allison, professor of animal husbandry of the state college of agriculture at Columbia.

Prof. Allison states that a judging room for live stock should be arranged for so it can be heated in case the weather is cold, and the building is to be well lighted and sufficiently large so a class of 150 can conveniently be located there. For the live stock judging, Prof. Allison wants the best available animals in the county. Four head are needed for each day, and it is desired to have them of about the same age, breed and sex, if possible, preferably owned by the same man. Beef cattle, dairy cattle, draft horses, hogs and sheep will be used and cattle should be to halter and gentle, and beef animals should be in good condition. The hogs will be pure-bred.

Prof. Douglass of the agronomy department of the state agricultural college will have charge of the dairy and poultry departments and will give special lectures. Lantern slides will be used.

The program for the course will be announced within a few days.

CALVE HEARD HER SING.

Voice Pupil of Mrs. J. W. McMillan Had Audience of the Great Singer in St. Joseph Last Week.

Emma Calve, the great opera singer who appeared in St. Joseph last week, gave audience to a voice pupil of Mrs. J. W. McMillan of that city, who has a large vocal class in Maryville. Mrs. McMillan returned to her home in St. Joseph Saturday morning from her two days' work with her class in this city.

The name of Mrs. McMillan's pupil who sang for Calve is Miss Helen Schoenhefer, 2423 Mary street. Miss Schoenhefer was encouraged and delighted beyond measure with the words of her famous critic, who complimented her enunciation, smooth range, her singing method, her scales and songs, and advised her to continue her studies, for she considered her voice of unusual quality and worth all the training that could be given to it.

Miss Schoenhefer's voice is flutelike in quality, but as she is quite small in stature and physique, will not be able to take a prominent place in the world of great singers, Calve said, if she will persist in study and practice.

WORKING ON WHITE WAY.

Proposition for Lighting System Meeting With Favor From the Property Owners.

Work was started this week by a committee to see the property owners in the business section of the city to have them paid for installing the white way lighting system, the city agreeing to pay for the juice to run the lights The committee is meeting with much encouragement.

According to the resolution adopted by the council the lighting of the city in the residence districts hinges on the white way system, and the white way system hinges on the residence lights.

Guests From Texas.

Mrs. H. A. Chamness and little daughter of Gainesville, Texas, spent Thursday and Friday in Maryville at the home of Mrs. Chamness' uncle, Mr. Lewis C. Miller. They went to Bolckow Friday evening for a short visit with relatives, where Mr. Chamness will meet them and leave Sunday evening for their home.

Manley Not so Well.

The condition of Frank Manley, who is at St. Francis hospital, is not so good today, according to his physicians. Manley fell from the postoffice building last Saturday and fractured his skull. The physicians removed the packing around the fractured skull and a blood clot has formed on his brain.

Mrs. S. A. Prickett went to St. Joseph Saturday morning to visit Mrs. Susan Dillon.

RANK STILL FIRST

NODAWAY COUNTY LEADS HOG RAISING COUNTIES.

AND FIFTH IN APPLES

More Than a Million and a Half Pounds of Poultry Shipped Out—Fine Educational Center.

According to the Missouri Red Book, just issued recently, Nodaway county leads all of the counties in hogs, is third in cattle, and if fifth in sending out apples in the state. Apples amounted to 52,091 barrels.

In the book will be found the following about the county.

The chief rivers and streams are the Hundred-and-Two, Nodaway and Platte rivers, Honey, Long Branch, Elkhorn, Clear, Mill and Rain's creek.

There is no timber of commercial consequence, but abundant along the river and smaller streams for local purposes; rough lumber, posts and fuel.

On the prairie the roads are fairly good, and many miles of dirt roads have been graded and otherwise improved. The good roads sentiment is prevalent, and better work will be the result.

Coal cropping out in the western part of the county, but no mining excepting a little by local parties in very small quantities.

The topography of Nodaway is a high, rolling prairie; a rich, deep, productive soil. Corn, wheat and oats are the leading farm crops, but nearly all the cereals and grasses and forage crops are produced, and some tobacco. Cattle, hogs, horses and mules and sheep make up the bulk of a large live stock production. Farms are well improved, and the farmers are prosperous and contented. Farms range in price from $40 to $150 per acre. Farm labor is had for $25 to $35 per month. In agricultural products Nodaway stands close to the top in a list of the ten greatest producing counties of the state.

Social conditions are good. Good railroad facilities, good public schools, prosperous churches, with Sunday schools, and other educational institutions all go to make Nodaway an ideal agricultural county. Maryville is the county seat, population 4,762. It has considerable manufacturing interests, such as mills, wagon factories, brick and tile, etc. A high school, Maryville seminary and a State Normal make Maryville an educational center. At Conception there is a Catholic college and an abbey, an academy for young women and an orphanage for girls; also a monastery. Priests teach in the college; clerics are preparing for priesthood, and lay brothers cultivate the college farm. There are convenient towns.

In the following table is shown the commodities produced in the county and shipped out by freight and express. No effort has been made to estimate the local consumption, as it would at best be only an estimate, with no assurance of absolute accuracy:

Mrs. D. N. Scott visited in Hopkins Friday afternoon with her brother, J. G. Rusk, and family.

WAS BURIED HERE.

John H. Sweitzer Died Thursday Morning in St. Louis as a Result of Injuries Sustained in a Fall.

John H. Sweitzer died Thursday morning at 4 o'clock in the city hospital in St. Louis, as a result of injuries sustained in a fall on an icy sidewalk in that city on Monday, January 6. His skull was fractured as a result of the fall.

His remains were brought to Maryville Saturday morning and funeral services were held at 8 o'clock this morning at St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Fr. Anselm. Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. The remains were accompanied to this city by Mrs. John Sweitzer and a brother, Conrad Sweitzer of Maryville, and by John Ames of St. Louis.

Mr. Sweitzer was 44 years old and was born and reared in Maryville. He has been in St. Louis for the past ten years. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sweitzer, who reside in this city, and also by his wife, of St. Louis. Two brothers and a sister also survive, who are Conrad and Joseph Sweitzer, and Mrs. Thomas Riffe of this city.

LECTURE NUMBER WAS GOOD.

Beilharz Pleased the Many Who Heard Him—Next Number by Dr. John Gray.

"The best I ever heard" was the expression of appreciation heard from almost everyone who attended Mr. Noah Beilharz's interpretation of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" Friday night at the First Methodist church. Each character in that popular old work, as depicted by the artist, was distinctly different, and yet each was handled in a masterly manner.

Last night's entertainment was the third number of the Normal lecture course. The next number will be on the night of Tuesday, February 25, and will be a lecture by Dr. John Gray.

INTRODUCED A BILL.

Representative Praisewater Offered One to Reimburse Former Sheriff Tilson.

In the house Representative John W. Praisewater of Burlington Junction introduced a number of bills reimbursing former Sheriff W. R. Tilson of Nodaway county for expense incurred by him in apprehending criminals. They carried appropriations as follows: For returning Orville V. Price from Jewell county, Kan., $28.20; for apprehending Charles Smith, who violated his parole in June, 1911, and went to Idaho, $158.56; for going to Fremont county Iowa, for Elmer Dix, $22.98; to Jackson county, Kansas, for Wood Gaulding, $20.45; to Pueblo, Col., for John Dix, $71.47, and to Indiana for J. Burns and Williams, $52.40.

THE BELLOWS OBSEQUIES.

Body of Mrs. Franklin Bellows Will Lie in State at Her Late Home From 1 Until 2 o'Clock Sunday.

The funeral services in memory of Mrs. Franklin Bellows, who passed away Wednesday afternoon, will be held at her late home, on South Fillmore street Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Miriam cemetery.

The body will lie in state from 1 until 2 o'clock p. m.

A brother and sister of the late Mrs. Bellows, Jacob Dilling of St. Joseph, Ill., and Mrs. Ella Shobe of Urbana, Ill., and an old friend of the family, Mrs. Ami Huffman of Nauvoo, Ill., arrived in the city Saturday morning to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Charles O'Connor Died.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fite and Mrs. W. H. Cumpston returned Saturday noon from Kansas City, where they attended the funeral services of Mr. Fite's sister, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, who died Monday afternoon at her home in that city from a complication of diseases, from which she had suffered a long time. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the home. Mrs. O'Connor was Miss Hattie Fite of Maryville and was born here thirty-eight years ago. She is survived by her husband, who also grew to manhood in Maryville.

Left for California.

Mrs. Anna Vance left Saturday morning for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the remainder of the winter with her brother, Will Roberts, and his wife.

On Visit to Brother.

Mrs. Vada Hailey went to Amazonia Saturday morning to spend a few days with her brother, Dr. S. S. Bever and family.

NO CENSOR YET

CONFLICTING DATES PREVENTED DR. TAYLOR BRINGING IN UP.

INSURANCE TAX STILL ON

Council Not Disposed to Remove Tax for Doing Business in Maryville—Heller Got His License.

At the city council meeting Friday evening the matter for the censorship of moving picture shows did not come up as had been expected. President H. K. Tyalor of the Normal was at the city hall waiting for the council meeting, but as the board did not meet until 8 o'clock, President Taylor could not stay until then as he had to be at the Normal lecture course number, Noah Beilharz, who gave a lecture at the First M. E. church on that evening.

The matter of censorship of the picture shows here has been agitated for some time by Dr. Taylor and a number of others, but it is thought that the council will not take any action on the matter, even if the agitators should bring it up.

The board granted a saloon license to W. A. Heller, to expire July 26, 1913.

The insurance petition requesting that the occupation tax be taken off of insurance companies doing business in Maryville was laid over again. The council don't seem disposed to take favorable action on this petition.

The street commissioner was ordered to open the alley back of the Bell and Richey properties, in Southwest Maryville.

The council also agreed to stand for one-half of the rent of a house for the fire driver, providing it does not exceed $7.50. The fire driver does not want to live in the city hall, as former fire drivers have done.

DIED IN KANSAS.

Mrs. Levi Long, for Many Years a Resident of Maryville, Died in Liberal, Kan., Friday.

Mrs. Levi Long, whose residence was for many years on the site of the Jefferson ward school building, died Friday of old age at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hood of Liberal, Kan. Mrs. Long had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hood since the death of her husband, quite a number of years ago. He was 91 years old when he died. Mrs. Long was the widow of Dr. Rynerson before she married Mr. Long.

A METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

An Organization Will Be Effected at a Banquet Next Thursday Evening at the First M. E. Church.

It is expected that a membership of 100 will be secured for the Methodist Brotherhood that will be organized at the First M. E. church next Thursday evening, when a meeting for that purpose will be held at the close of the banquet to be given at 6:30 o'clock.

The principal speaker at the banquet will be Mr. G. H. Dentz of the Hoffman Memorial M. E. church of St. Joseph.

Dr. Dodd, who is conducting the Bible study at the First Presbyterian church, and the pastor, Rev. Harkness, will speak during the first part of the banquet.

A fuller notice of the affair will be given early next week.

Hazel Smith and Goldie Roelofson were out of school this week on account of sickness.

A new four-team basket ball schedule has been arranged, excluding members of the first team. There are to be twelve games. The teams are captained by Blagg, Scott, V. Lyle and Murray, and will play every Wednesday and Friday. The first game was played Wednesday between Scott's and Blagg's teams, the former winning 26 to 12. Owing to repair work going on in the gym Friday's games were postponed until Monday.

Rev. Harrell gave a very interesting talk in assembly Tuesday morning. He chose for his subject "Things to Read." He cited several poets and their works as examples, among them being Byron, who, he said, had written many beautiful thoughts, but often to get all these parts one was compelled to wade through parts that were equally of the reverse nature, and could not reap the full harvest of the beautiful. So these works, then, would not be in the list he would advise students to read. He also stated that more books came off the press in the last year than were in existence in the whole world when Columbus discovered America. In closing he left the impression that it is not how many books we read, but what we read, and what we read, read well.

Miss Eleanor Smith was a visitor Friday afternoon.

Last Wednesday the advanced seniors took dinner at Binter's cafe, after which they attended the Empire theater. They had as guests Mr. Leiber Holmes and Prof. Westbrook.

Rev. Duncan Monro of the Calvary Baptist church of Kansas City has been selected to deliver the graduation address Friday night. Rev. Monro has been in this field of work for some time and the members of the class are congratulating themselves on being able to secure his services for this occasion. Rev. Cox will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night at the Christian church.

The last week of study for this term being over, the students are making preparations for the final examination, which will last until next Thursday noon.

The senior girls are rehearsing for a playette which will be given Friday afternoon. The title is "The Heartville Shakespeare Club," and is of the comedy nature.

The high school lost the first of a series of out-of-town games to Blanchard last night by a score of 16 to 8. Those who made the trip were David, Thompson, Wilson, Leech, Staples and Streater.

Sunday Services at Local Churches

First Baptist Church.

Professor Harry Miller of the State Normal will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. There will be no services in the evening excepting the usual B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 o'clock, as the congregation will join in the union service for the high school class sermon at the Christian church at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday school as usual at 9:30 a. m.

Southern Methodist Church.

Sunday school at 9:30. The Wage Earners' Bible class had a live lesson hour last Sunday, and discussed the question of the relation of the white and black races. All wage earners not attending Sunday school elsewhere are cordially invited to join this class.

Preaching at 10:45 by Rev. J. F. Patton of the Skidmore Southern Methodist church. Subject, "The Colossian Heresy." The pastor of the church, Rev. J. D. Randolph is conducting revival meetings at Skidmore.

League at 6:30 p. m.

No evening service on account of the high school commencement sermon.

First M. E. Church.

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., the pastor giving a special lecture on Genesis to the men's Bible class.

Preaching at 10:45 by the pastor, Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, on the subject "The Shepherd's Song." The choir will sing "The Penitent's Prayer," from the cantata "Conversion," by Matthews.

Miss Marie Gayle Jackson, the new voice teacher at the Conservatory will ring a solo at this service.

There will be no preaching service in the evening at this church. The pastor will preach upon the subject "The Greatest Teacher" at the First Christian church, before the midwinter graduating class of the high school, when all the churches of the city will join in the service.

First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Samuel Dodds will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit at tomorrow morning and evening services. The largest audience, so far, of the special service listened to a powerful and graphic description of the raising of Lazarus and the annointing of Jesus. The unique feature of Dr. Dodds' method is that he uses his fine scholarship to drive home the imperative need of consecration to the Master's service. His subject tomorrow morning will be "The Gospel of the Tabernacle," and his evening teaching "The Intercessory Prayer." The evening services will be changed in time to allow those who wish to attend the baccalaureate service plenty of time to traverse the distance between the two churches before the latter service begins.

The Young People's club will meet at 6:15 p. m., and the evening service at 7 o'clock.

There will be no afternoon meeting on Monday, but at 7:30 in the evening Dr. Dodds will speak on "The Lord's supper."

Christian Church.

Regular preaching service at 10:45 by the pastor, Rev. C. J. Miller.

Bible school at 9:30.

Endeavor at 6:30. Leader, Miss Aileen Henderson. Subject, "How Can We Better Our Prayer Meetings?"—Matt. 18:18-20.

Morning subject, "Christian Education."

January 19th is Education Day. It will be observed by all our representative churches.

The evening service will be in honor of the graduates of the high school this term. All the Protestant churches will worship with us. Rev. Cox will deliver the sermon. The program for the evening will be as follows.

Prelude, Dr. Thomas.
Hymn No. 2.
Invocation, Rev. Randolph.
Hymn No. 138.
Prayer, Dr. Dodds.
Scripture lesson, Rev. Harkness.
Anthem.
Announcements.
Solo by Mrs. Fred P. Robinson.
Sermon, "The Greatest Teacher," by Rev. Cox.
Hymn No. 282.
Benediction, Rev. Miller.
Postlude.

Thursday Evening Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reavis entertained informally Thursday evening with games, music and luncheon. Their guests were Miss Kittie Grems, Miss Nelle Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swann, Messrs. John Mutz and Edgar Rhoades.

To Have a Stag Dinner.

The Elks club will give a stag dinner on Wednesday evening, January 22, at the clubhouse for the members. The dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock. The following will be the menu for the dinner:

Oyster cocktail, dill pickles, olives, celery, roast young chicken, dressing, gravy, cold sliced tongue, cabbage salad, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, French peas, bread and butter, cranberry sauce, baked apples, toasted crackers, wafers, cheese, coffee, cigars.

Bride and Groom From Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McClintock of Golden Prairie, Wyo., are visiting near Maryville with Mrs. McClintock's grandmother, Mrs. M. McComas, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Epperson, south of Maryville, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tebow. Mr. and Mrs. McClintock are a Christmas bride and groom, their wedding having occurred at Cheyenne. The bride, who is a niece of Mrs. Epperson and Mrs. Tebow, was Miss Bethel McComas. She was a student at the State Normal during its first year and before the family of her father, W. B. McComas, moved to Wyoming.

Were Surprised.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dinsmore were very pleasantly surprised at their home, near Gaynor City, Tuesday evening by about forty of their neighbors. The evening was spent in social conversation. Light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore are to change their residence soon and this was in the nature of a farewell gathering. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Will Sparks and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Will Logan and son, Rev. Hughes, Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hart and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Goff, Mrs. John Brown, Mr. G. C. Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. George Hepburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Husbands, Mr. Carl Timmerman, Mrs. Timmerman, Mrs. L. A. Nigh, Mrs. Delmar New, Miss Lucile Husbands, Miss Ada Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd, Messrs. Gale and Ralph Boyd, Miss Euphamia Heflin.

A Remnant Reception.

Something new was planned at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Southern Methodist church Friday afternoon, which was held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Gray. It will be a "remnant reception" and will be held in the church parlors on Friday evening, January 31, particulars of which will be given later, and an informal program will be given. The ladies also made arrangements for their annual Easter sale and will devote themselves to work for that event from now on to the time for holding it, which will be announced soon. After the business session was over the ladies enjoyed a social hour, when the hostess served a luncheon, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. John Johnson, and Mrs. Raymond Barry. The entire afternoon was very enjoyable, fully thirty members being present, and one new member, Mrs. French Carter, was added. There were two visitors, Mrs. Charles Thorp and Mrs. S. B. Davenport.

The Reds Won the Contest.

The banquet given by the Sunday school of the M. E. church of Burlington Junction at Odd Fellows' hall Thursday night was a most enjoyable affair. The banquet was the result of a contest held by the school, which had been divided into two sections, known as the "Reds" and the "Greens," in winning new students for the school. The losing side, the "Greens," served the banquet, and stood the boasts made by their opponents with most becoming humility. The hall was decorated in red and green. Mr. O. F. Wilson acted as toastmaster. During the serving of the banquet of chicken sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad, cream, cake and coffee, the following toasts were responded to: "Why the Reds Won," Ray Miller; "Why the Greens Lost," Miss Hattie Barker; "The Ideal Sunday School Teacher," Miss Isabel Ely; "How to Keep Up Interest in a Class of Boys" C. B. Zarn; "How the Student Can Help the Teacher," Lee Yaple; "The Relation of Church and Sunday School," by Rev. Sappenfield, the pastor.

Two Birthday Anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietz gave a 12 o'clock dinner Saturday to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of their daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. Dietz's mother, Mrs. William Bredenbeck. The table was centered with a large white log birthday cake, on one side of which was the date 1845, and on the other 1902, in pink letters. Little Miss Margaret was 11 years old on Wednesday, the 15th of January, and Mrs. Bredenbeck was 68 years old Saturday, the 18th. At Margaret's request the celebration was held on her grandmother's birthday. There was only one guest outside of the two families, and that was Mrs. Bredenbeck's old friend, Mrs. George Kraus. They have been friends for over forty-four years, when Mrs. Bredenbeck and her late husband located in Maryville. Mrs. Bredenbeck's grandchildren especially enjoyed the occasion and listened with much pleasure to stories of their own girlhood and young womanhood. All the conversation at table was carried on in German, from the oldest down to 3-year-old William Dietz, who is more familiar with words in that language than he is with English words. The dinner company included Mrs. Bredenbeck, Miss Margaret Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietz, Misses Edna, Esther and Grace Dietz, Edward William Dietz, Peter Dietz, Jr., Miss Amelia Bredenbeck and Mrs. George Kraus.

Sale Dates Fixed for March 4th for Sundry Articles No Longer Required by Politicians.

The following notice of sale was received by The Democrat-Forum recently:

Public sale—Having decided to retire from public life we will offer at public sale at the White House, east front door, Tuesday, March 4th, 1913, the following personal property: One large elephant, smooth mouth, age uncertain, well fed but very thin, owing to strenuous campaign recently passed through, has large scar on right side from being gored by a bull moose; one set golf sticks, slightly worn; one job lot of postmasters, one steam roller, used one season, one keynote speech, used one time; one second-hand reciprocity treaty, one best tariff bill, passed once. There will also be brought over from Oyster Bay the following property: One bull moose, calved in June, 1912, large as to size, imported from Africa; one big stick, slightly worn; two socialist planks, good as new; one Ananias plank, good as new, one Columbus speech, the only one in existance; one set of seven governors, guaranteed to run; other articles needless to mention.

Terms—Twenty-five per cent discount for cash in hand on sums over 30 cents; under that amount will take promissory notes. No property to be moved until purchaser has found out he has been stung. Bull moose sandwiches at noon. W. J. Wilson, auctioneer. Woodrow Bryan, clerk. Taft & Roosevelt, owners.

P. S.—Will trade one Saint Joe Cannon for good party politic.

BOWELS BAD, LIVER TORPID? CASCARETS

If Constipated, Bilious, Headachy, Stomach Sour, Get a 10-Cent Box of Cascarets—Take One Tonight.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

Surely Banishes Catarrh.

Where there's catarrh there's thousands of catarrh germs. You can't get rid of catarrh unless you kill these germs.

You can't kill them with stomach medicine or sprays because they can't get where germs are.

You can kill these germs with Booth's HYOMEI, a penetrating, antiseptic, balsamic air that you breathe a few times a day directly over the raw, sore, germ infested membrane. It does not contain morphine or any habit forming drug.

For catarrh, croup, coughs and colds HYOMEI is sold on money back plan by the Orear-Henry Drug Co. Complete outfit, $1.00. Extra bottles of Booth's HYOMEI if afterward needed, only 50 cents. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing.—Advertisement.

BEUM RELEASED PENDING APPEAL

Dynamite Conspirator Quits Prison Under $30,000 Bond.

LEAVES COMPANIONS AT WORK

Beum Asserts All the Other Convicted Conspirators Are Confident of Final Release and Are Not Discouraged in the Least.

Leavenworth, Jan. 18.—Dressed in the same suit of clothes he wore on Jan. 1, when, with thirty-two other men, he entered the federal prison to serve a three-year term imposed upon him at Indianapolis for his alleged connection with a nation-wide dynamite plot, Charles N. Beum of Minneapolis, stepped forth from the prison—released under $30,000 bond. He was the first of the imprisoned dynamite conspirators to obtain his liberty.

As the prison wagon in which he rode from the grounds passed out Beum looked back and saw some of his former comrades swinging steel girders into place over the east front of the cell house which is being constructed by the men. They were ignorant of the fact that the wagon which passed beneath them contained Beum, but he knew they were up there and expressed regret that he could not see them. He previously had been refused permission to shake hands with his comrades and had but a minute to say a hasty goodby to Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

"I'm going home to my family. I haven't seen them for four months," said Beum. He said all the labor leaders were confident of their final release. "There is not a man in the bunch that is discouraged the least bit," he asserted.

Tveitmoe's Bonds Forwarded.

San Francisco, Jan. 18.—Bonds to the amount of $143,500 for the release of Olaf A. Tveitmoe, convicted at Indianapolis of complicity in the national dynamite conspiracy and now in the federal prison at Leavenworth were forwarded to District Attorney Miller at Chicago. The bonds were approved by Commissioner Krull, after Miller had refused to telegraph to allow the federal district attorney's office here to pass upon the qualifications of the bondsmen. Tveitmoe's wife, Mrs. Ingebork Tveitmoe, scheduled $70,000, the largest bond offered

ENGINEER PRICE REPORTS

Makes Statement of Irrigation Questions Now Uppermost.

Lincoln, Jan. 18.—State Engineer Price has just completed his biennial report and in the report he goes into the work under his jurisdiction very thoroughly and makes many recommendations to the legislature, among them the following:

Smaller unit farms recommended; 600,000 acres subject to irrigation in North Platte valley and only 230,000 acres actually irrigated in 1912.

Recommends further development of present ditches before building any new ones.

Careless use of water for irrigation has caused a large amount of seepage.

Recommends building of reservoirs.

Irrigation bonds should be approved and registered in state auditor's office and state treasurer should be authorized to purchase the same with school funds the same as municipal bonds.

Wyoming and Colorado are fast using all the water in streams which head in these states and are shutting Nebraska out.

Power developments, three large ones. Many small developments have been made.

MAY OMIT INAUGURAL BALL

Committee Awaiting Further Word From President Elect.

Washington, Jan. 18.—William C Eustis, chairman of the inaugural committee, held an informal conference with members of the committee over President elect Wilson's letter suggesting that the committee consider the feasibility of omitting the usual inaugural ball. He said the committee would do all possible to meet the wishes of Mr. Wilson. Formal action was deferred until the committee confers with Mr. Wilson.

Representative Rodenberry offered an amendment to the resolution authorizing the use of the pension office, which is worded as follows:

"That the grant of the use of the pension building for the inaugural ball is expressly upon the condition and with the limitation that for the prevention of acts of public indecency the following so called dances are barred and prohibited:

"Grizzly bear varieties, the bunny hug, tenderloin movements, the turkey trot contortions, and all like vulgarisms of the hoochee coochess dance and all similar forms of gymnastic convulsive movements suggestive of the degenerate revelries of the segregated districts."

Murderer Lynched by Mob.

Paris, Tex., Jan. 18.—Henry Mouzon, a negro who shot and killed the twelve-year-old daughter of D. Merrell, a farmer, near Pecan Gap, a week ago, was hanged from a telephone pole in the public square by a mob.

RAYMOND POINCARE
Head of French Ministry Who Becomes President of the Republic

TAFT IN PHILADELPHIA, SPEAKS THREE TIMES

Expresses Hope Wilson Administration Will Be Prosperous.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—President Taft addressed three largely attended dinners here. He came to this city from Washington as the guest of the Clover club and participated in the ceremonies incident to the installing of three "baby" members. In his address the president referred in a facetious manner to his approaching "political demise," and expressed the hope that the administration of his successor would be a prosperous one. After his speech at the Clover club the president took an elevator and ascended to the roof of the hotel, where he addressed a gathering of physicians at the annual dinner of the Medical club. Later he spoke at the dinner of the Poor Richard club in the same hotel.

LEWIS VISITS WILSON

Says Parcel Post Profits Will Make Penny Postage Possible.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 18.—Representative Lewis of Maryland, author of the house bill from which the present parcels post law originated, urged President elect Wilson to appoint as postmaster general "a competent master of postal and transportation economies."

Mr. Lewis suggested no names, but pointed out in a memorandum submitted to Mr. Wilson that without additional funds or legislation the post-office department within four years could establish rates for the movement of small shipments at one-half the present express rates. By making the rural routes relatively profitable through the use of fast freight he said penny posstage would be feasible.

Baby Strangled to Death by Gocart.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 18.—The seven-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. John Swason of Brule county hanged itself in a go-cart and was found dead by the mother. The mother left the little tot in the go-cart and stepped outside the house to care for some horses. When she returned she found the cart had collapsed and that her little daughter had been strangled to death.

Dishonest Fruit Dealers Scored.

New Orleans, Jan. 18.—After attacking dishonest dealers, the Western Fruit Jobbers' association convention adjourned to meet next year at Kansas City. The officers elected were: Samuel E. Lux of Kansas City, president; E. H. Emery of Ottumwa, first vice president; W. D. Tidwell secretary, and W. M. Roylance of Provo, Utah, treasurer.

Money Hearings to Be Suspended.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Hearings of the house money committee will be suspended next week, according to an announcement by Representative Pujo, chairman of the committee, who assigned as the reason for the suspension the doubt cast upon the power of the committee to inquire into the internal affairs of banking institutions.

To Reduce Tariff on Paper.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Substantial reduction of the tariff all along the line in the wood pulp and print paper schedule and retention of the existing duties on tobacco, cigars and similar articles constitute part of the Democratic tariff revision program to be presented to the coming extra session of congress.

Deportation of Mylius Delayed.

New York, Jan. 18.—Deportation of Edward F. Mylius, the Belgian journalist convicted of libelling King George V. of England, which was set for Jan. 23, was postponed by Judge Holt, who issued a write of habeas corpus, returnable Jan. 24.

POINCARE IS ELECTED

Premier is Elevated to Presidency of France.

PROMINENT IN PUBLIC LIFE.

New Executive Is Considered One of Strongest Men in France—Number of Exciting Incidents in National Assembly During the Balloting.

Versailles, France, Jan. 18.—Raymond Nicolas Landry Poincare, for the last twelve months premier of the French cabinet, was elected president of the republic of France by the national assembly, composed of the members of both chambers of parliament, in succession to President Armand Fallieres, whose seven-year term expires Feb. 18.

The wildest confusion, out of which arose two challenges to duels, marked the casting of the ballots.

Premier Poincare's selection for the presidency of France, although made by parliament, as required by the constitution, is regarded as representing as well the popular will of the nation. The choice took place on the second ballot, on which the premier received fifty-three votes more than an absolute majority of the 859 votes cast. Jules Pams, minister of agriculture, was his nearest competitor, receiving 187 votes less than the new president.

The final ballot stood: Raymond Poincare, 483; Jules Pams, 296; Marie Edouard Valliant, 69.

Promises to Be Impartial.

M. Poincare's first words on receiving the notification of his election were: "I shall try to show myself worthy of the confidence of the national assembly. I shall forget without effort the struggles of yesterday and even the injuries. Be convinced that I shall seek in everything and at all times to be an impartial administrator."

At the same time the result was announced to the deputies and senators who composed the national assembly and the throng of people, including people of fashion and diplomats, who crowded the galleries. The news was greeted with a round of cheers. As the legislators and spectators hurried back to Paris detachments of soldiers were being aligned to salute the president elect and escort him to Paris.

Raymond Poincare, now in his fifty-third year, is of medium height and sturdy build and radiates an impression of force, both physical and intellectual. He is versatile and comes from a family distinguished in science and literature. The president elect himself is a philosopher, a writer and a member of the French academy, with a notable career in French law circles.

CLEMENCY FOR BRANDT

Former Schiff Valet Pardoned by Governor Sulzer.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Governor Sulzer pardoned Folke E. Brandt, former valet of Mortimer L. Schiff, the New York banker, on the ground that Brandt's sentence of thirty years for burglary was excessive.

At the request of Governor Sulzer Attorney General Carmody made a statement, in which he said he favored Brandt's pardon, "not as a matter of mercy, but as a matter of justice."

Mr. Carmody declared that the governor's action wiped out a "blot on the judiciary of the state" and showed "that there is nothing that can defeat the ends of justice."

United States Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota made a speech, in which he characterized Brandt's sentence as judicial tyranny.

The governor explained that Brandt had promised to lead a better life if released from prison, and added that Mr. Schiff had declared he would not oppose Brandt's application for clemency unless it was based on "scandalous and malicious statements."

It was stipulated by Governor Sulzer in pardoning Brandt that he is not to accept a theatrical engagement and must not in the future reflect upon the character of any one.

Senator Nelson volunteered to take Brandt to Minnesota and at the suggestion of the governor, Brandt accepted the offer.

Will Seek New Continent.

Grand Forks, N. D., Jan. 18.—V. Stefansson, discoverer of the "blonde Eskimo" of the north, who has been lecturing at the University of North Dakota, where he formerly was a student, announced that he had been assured of $50,000 as expenses for a trip to locate an undiscovered continent in the north, which scientists believe exists there. The party intends to leave San Francisc or Seattle in May. Dr. R. M. Anderson of Iowa, who was with Stefansson on his last trip, will be second in command.

Offer Skin to Save Girl's Life.

Kansas City, Jan. 18.—One thousand members of the Boy Scouts and scores of other persons here each volunteered to give a square inch of skin to save the life of Roberta Haidnes, ten years old, who was badly burned when her father, mother and little sister perished in a fire that destroyed their home at Arnetta, Okla., last Christmas eve. The girl is in a hospital here.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs.

I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Thedford's."

GOTHAM WAITERS VOTE TO STRIKE

Woman is Power Behind New York Hotel Workers.

New York, Jan. 17.—Night working hotel waiters, numbering about 3,000, voted in ratification of a general strike in Greater New York, as decided upon by their day working fellows. Leaders say the strike will begin within twenty-four hours.

The strike is to be conducted by the International Hotel Workers' union and Industrial Workers of the World, and will involve between 12,000 and 15,000 men.

Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the I. W. W. organizer, is the real leader of the present strike and was the principal speaker at the meeting. She took her audience by surprise by springing a proposal against tip taking, and after considerable uproar and wrangling in four languages the final vote was unanimous against accepting gratuities if a living wage could be obtained from the hotel proprietors.

Strikes in several other big industries, involving 200,000 persons, are in progress here.

Reporters and other writers of the Jewish daily newspapers struck, demanding a minimum wage scale of $25 weekly and an agreement that no reporter shall be forced to write more than three columns a day.

Warren's Friends Force Adjournment.

Cheyenne, Jan. 18.—Senator Warren's followers scored a signal victory in the house of representatives when, catching the Democrats napping, they brought about an adjournment for three days. The Wyoming law requires that the election for senator shall be held on the 28th day of January. If the Democrats do not succeed before that date in ousting the Republican representatives whose seats are contested, they cannot defeat Senator Warren.

LOUNSBERRY FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Robbing Mail Car Near Kansas City.

INSANITY PLEA IS REJECTED.

Kansas City, Jan. 18.—Wells Lounsberry of Medford, Ore., who last August robbed a mail car on a Union Pacific train between Kansas City and Lawrence, Kan., was found guilty in the federal court.

The verdict was returned on one count. According to the instruction of the court each count calls for a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary.

Lounsberry was sentenced to seven and one-half years in the federal prison at Leavenworth.

The plea of the defense was insanity. The government introduced experts as well as citizens of Medford, Lounsberry's home, to refute that plea.

Lounsberry held up six mail clerks, forcing one to bind the others and blindfold them. After rifling the registered mail sacks and placing his loot in a bag, he stepped off the train at Lawrence, boarded it again a moment later and hid in a Pullman berth, where he was captured by the conductor and detectives as the train entered Topeka.

Machine in Which They Were Riding Strikes Water Plug at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—Russell F. Davis of Cleveland, assistant secretary to Mrs. Helen Britton, owner of the St. Louis National league baseball club, and William H. Walters of St. Louis, president of a novelty company, were killed in an automobile accident here.

The automobile in which they were riding struck a water plug at Grand and Cottage avenues. The impact turned the car around, threw the two men out and tore the cap off the water plug, flooding the street and inundating Davis's body as it lay near the curb.

Davis died a few minutes after he had been taken out of the water by a policeman. Walters was hurled in the air and was dead when picked up.

WILMOT WILL BE DEPORTED

Scientist Paroled From Illinois Penitentiary Held Undesirable.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—John R. Wilmot, scientist, author, inventor and promoter, who recently was paroled from the Joliet penitentiary after serving five and one-half years of a seven-year sentence on a charge of forgery, is in the county jail here awaiting a formal order from Washington ordering his deportation to England.

Wilmot, who is said to have degrees from English universities, was arraigned before Dr. Percy L. Prentiss, immigration inspector, and his presence in this country was held to be undesirable. His deportation was ordered.

While in the penitentiary Wilmot is said to have laid the foundation for several inventions of monetary value, one being a gas machine and another a smoke consumer.

When he stepped from the penitentiary door he was arrested. The main point against him was said to be his criminal record.

Doesn't Want Name on Tombstone.

Chillicothe, Mo., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Edna Sibert, aged seventy, was granted a divorce from Henry Sibert, aged seventy-five, on a plea of non-support, and a contention that she "did not want his name on her tombstone." Her maiden name, Edna Wiley, was restored. The Siberts had been separated twenty-eight years. Both are of old families prominent in Livingstone county.

Trains Trapped by Mexican Rebels.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 18.—The missing southbound passenger train and two troop trains have been trapped by the rebels burning bridges on the Mexican Central railway below Juarez, it was learned definitely. Among the marooned passengers are many prominent American and Mexican mining and cattle men.

Mother Shot by Jealous Woman.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—As Mrs. Hazel Bowman, twenty-seven years old, lay in bed with her three-day-old infant, she was shot three times in the head. She told the police the shooting was done by a woman rival for the affections of Jacob Bowman, the wounded woman's husband. Mrs. Bowman will recover.

Tom Dolan, Old Time Catcher, Is Dead.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—Thomas J. Dolan, catcher for the old St. Louis Browns when that organization, under Chris Von Der Ahe, won the pennant four times, died at his home here. His death was due to a complication of diseases. Dolan was fifty-four years old.

British Bar Excludes Women.

CONCENTRATION IS ADVOCATED

Liberty of Individuals to Get Cash Demanded by Schiff.

WOULD LEAVE CURE TO NATURE

Washington, Jan. 17.—Liberty of individuals to concentrate money and power to the limit of their ability was advocated before the house money trust investigating committee by Joseph H. Schiff of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Mr. Schiff declared individuals should be allowed to exert their utmost efforts to concentrate fortunes and power until the laws of nature caused the attempted monopoly "to fall of its own weight." He opposed, however, concentration through corporations and holding companies. He could not say whether concentration had yet reached the point where it was dangerous.

Mr. Schiff took the view that depositors in banks were protected sufficiently under the present law "if administered by and kept up to the teachings of experience." He thought there was no objection to one bank selling securities to another bank which it owned, as "prudence" would prevent officers of a bank from accepting too much of a doubtful security, and that no further law was necessary.

"Too much law," he said, "can crush the life out of a bank."

"I believe in individual freedom," said Mr. Schiff. "If an individual goes too far the laws of nature would interfere. The first attempt at monopoly was the tower of Babel. That fell of its own weight. Every individual monopoly would do the same when it reaches that point."

"Have you ever thought what would happen while such a monopoly was growing and when it had fallen of its own weight?"

"No, I never thought of that," answered Mr. Schiff.

Says Concentration Is Menace.

That the concentration of money and credit is a potential "menace to the country" was asserted by George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago. Mr. Reynolds said that he knew of the "trend toward concentration of money and credits" and that he thought it a dangerous thing.

"I am opposed to the concentration of any sort of power," he said. "I believe that concentration to the point it has already gone is a menace."

Mr. Reynolds said he was opposed to the principle of interlocking directors in competing concerns and that he had adhered to that principle throughout his banking career.

Mine Crew Imprisoned.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 18.—For six hours 150 coal miners were imprisoned in the North Riverside mine, near here. Soon after the men entered the pit the engine house boilers exploded, stopping all machinery, including the fan which supplies air to the tunnels. By telephone the miners were informed that they were locked in and that they were in no danger. Huddled together, they waited anxiously until the boilers were repaired and they were released.

Southmayd Found Guilty of Murder.

Sturgis, S. D., Jan. 17.—The jury in the Southmayd murder case brought in a verdict of guilty of murder as charged in the indictment and fixing punishment at life imprisonment at hard labor. The prisoner was sentenced by Judge Rice and was taken to the Sioux Falls penitentiary.

HOME RULE BILL GOES TO LORDS

Passes Last Reading in House of Commons.

IRISHMEN APPLAUD MEASURE.

Thousand of Orangemen and Members of Unionist Clubs at Belfast Parade Streets in Protest and Burn Copy of Bill.

London, Jan. 17.—After a long, stern battle the home rule bill passed the house of commons by a majority of 110. Later it was read for the first time in the house of lords.

There were two divisions in the lower house. Mr. Balfour's motion for its rejection was defeated, 368 to 268, while the third reading was carried by a vote of 367 to 257, one member of each side having left the house in the interval.

Although the result of the division was a foregone conclusion, Irishmen inside and outside of the house did their best, and, assisted by the Liberals and Laborites, gave the measure for which they had waited and worked so long a good send-off on its way to the house of lords, where its fate is certainly sealed.

The division was preceded by another series of brilliant speeches by the political leaders, among whom were Frederick E. Smith and the solicitor, Sir John A. Simon, two of the cleverest among the younger members, and the veterans, John E. Redmond, Timothy Healy and Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland.

Crowds in Street Cheer.

The house of commons soon quited after the Irish demonstration, but outside the crowd continued to cheer for some time. A strong force of police prevented any attempt at an organized demonstration, fearing a clash between the opposing factions. The Nationalist songs and cheers brought forth counter cries from the persons who had gathered largely out of curiosity.

In a characteristic speech during the course of the debate, Mr. Redmond dwelt feelingly on the years of discouragement through which Irishmen had passed in their efforts to secure home rule, and now their day of victory had arrived.

"We know that the house of lords is going to throw the home rule bill out," he said, "but I believe the home rule bill in spite of the house of lords is going to pass into law within the life-time of this parliament."

Demonstration at Belfast.

Belfast, Jan. 17.—Thousands of Orangemen and members of the Unionist clubs held demonstrations outside the city hall and burned a copy of the home rule bill. Bands paraded the streets. There was much firing of revolvers, mostly blank cartridges, but one man was shot in the back and is in a critical condition.

SALLY'S LOSS, LONDON'S GAIN

How Maid Servant Lost Husband and Wealth and City Became Possessed of Fine Hospital.

That bequests to individuals and to public benevolences are frequently the result of a mere whim or of caprice, has no better illustration, perhaps, than the case of Thomas Guy, who built and endowed the great Guy's hospital of London, at a cost of £238,292 nearly two hundred years ago. Guy had a maid servant of strictly frugal habits, who made his wishes her careful study. He resolved to make her his wife. The necessary preparations were made for the wedding; and among others many little repairs were ordered by Mr. Guy in and about his house. The latter included the laying of a new pavement opposite the street door. It so happened that Sally, the bride-elect, observed a piece of pavement beyond her master's house that required mending, and of her own accord she gave orders to the workmen to do this. This was done in the absence of Mr. Guy, who on seeing more work done than he had ordered was informed that the additional work had been done by the mistress's orders. Thereupon Guy told Sally she had forgotten her position, and added: "If you take upon yourself to order matters contrary to my instructions before we are married, what will you not do after? I renounce my matrimonial intentions toward you." So Sally lost a rich and grouchy husband and London gained a noble institution for her poor.

Funeral at Guilford.

The funeral services for Mrs. Eliza J. Lewis, who died Thursday morning at the home of her son, Walter Clemmons of Clearmont, were held Friday afternoon at the M. E. church, South, of Guilford, by Rev. A. R. Hunt, pastor of the Christian church of Savannah. Burial took place in the Weatherman cemetery.

Miss Helen Hardenbrook of Bedford, Ia., arrived in Maryville Saturday morning on a visit to Miss Lydia Wilbur of South Market street and the families of Eugene Ogden, O. A. Spickerman and Frank Goodspeed.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDY ON

ADAMS SIN PUNISHED

THE DEATH-CURSE.

Genesis 3—Jan. 19.

"Every one that committeth sin is the bond-servant of sin."—John 8:34.

ADAM'S first sin brought the penalty specified in this lesson. The Bible proposition is that God, having made Adam perfect, required perfect obedience as the condition of everlasting life. One act of disobedience broke the covenant between God and Adam. (Hosea 6:7, Margin.) Immediately he dropped from favor, under the sentence, "Dying, thou shalt die." Nothing that Adam or his children could do subsequently could recover covenant relationship with God. The death penalty was the limit.

By the law of heredity, Adam transmitted to his race a share of what he possessed, good and bad. As Adam could not increase his penalty, neither can his children. But as Adam could, by obedience to the Divine Law, prolong the process of his dying, so may his children. But the impairment wrought by sin has so progressed that many of Adam's children die in infancy; and few maintain the struggle for existence for a hundred years.

Death the Curse—Not Torture.

Our forefathers during the Dark Ages misunderstood the Heavenly Father's character and Plan. Misunderstanding the Bible to teach that God arranged for the eternal torture of all except the Church, they sought to copy their misconception of Jehovah by torturing their fellow-creatures. Because God's people have been gradually getting back to the teaching of His Word, the horrible practises of the past are no longer approved.

The serpent spoke by signs.

But many have much yet to learn respecting the true teaching of the Bible.

The curse which God pronounced against our race is not eternal torment at the hands of devils; but as the Apostle says, "The wages of sin is death." The remedy is a resurrection, secured through the Redeemer's death at Calvary. "The gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." All experience the death penalty. All will have opportunity sometime of regaining everlasting life through Messiah's redemptive work and His Kingdom.

For a Little Flock, who in this Age have obeyed the Master's Voice, God has provided glorious things, far superior to anything that Adam lost. To those who walk in Jesus' footsteps God promises a share with the Master in His glorious Kingdom.

The Lesson of This Study.

If our Christian forefathers could properly have appreciated today's lesson, they would have known what the Bible teaches respecting the "wages of sin," and have seen how seriously public thought had drifted away from the Divine testimony, to "doctrines of demons." How distinctly God forewarned our first parents that eating the forbidden fruit would bring upon them the death penalty! After they had disobeyed, God drove them out of Eden that the penalty pronounced against them might be accomplished. Had they continued in Eden, eating of its life-sustaining fruits, they would have lived indefinitely.

Why Evil Was Permitted.

God foreknew the fall of man, before the foundation of the world, and provided the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world. God had a glorious purpose interwoven with His permission of sin, which the majority but faintly discerned until lately. Jesus intimated that shortly before the establishment of His Kingdom His Church will understand features of the Divine Plan previously kept secret—they will have an appreciation of God's purposes, and His reasons for having permitted sin and death for six thousand years.

The Temptation of Eve.

How Lucifer and holy angels became disloyal to God we will inquire into later. In this lesson Lucifer, or Satan, is shown as seeking to alienate our first parents from the Creator that he might enslave them as servants. A spirit being, he would be unseen to Eve. It suited his purposes to possess a serpent, through which to tempt Eve. The serpent doubtless spoke by signs; as we sometimes say, "Actions speak louder than words."

Driven out of Eden.

The serpent ate of the forbidden fruit in the sight of the woman and then manifested its wisdom. The woman perceived. She craved knowledge. Could it be that God wished to keep them in ignorance, and for that reason had forbidden their eating of the fruit? Such disloyal thoughts should have been promptly spurned. But the insidious poison worked. She was not deceived as respects the wrongdoing, but regarding the result. Seeing that the serpent was not poisoned by the fruit, she did not realize that the poison to her was that of disobedience, bringing the death sentence. Adam's eating of the fruit was with full knowledge of the result. In love with his wife, he ate knowingly, preferring to die with her rather than to live without her.
